

Kissinger Threatens To Resign

SALZBURG, Austria (AP) — Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger said today he would resign unless the controversy over his role in national security wire tapping was cleared up. His voice breaking with emotion, Kissinger said the controversy is hurting America's foreign policy. "I do not believe it is possible to conduct the foreign policy of the United States under these circumstances," he told a news conference. "If it is not cleared up I will resign."

Kissinger, his eyes glistening with tears, claimed that leaks to the news media defamed his honor and reputation.

"It is not possible to conduct national policy under this sort of attack," he said in delivering his threat to quit.

The Nobel Prize-winning diplomat, again denying he ordered wiretaps on his subordinates, called upon the Senate Foreign Relations Committee to reopen its hearings to investigate the controversy.

Kissinger is here en route with President Nixon to the Middle East. It was there earlier this month that Kissinger, working as a mediator, helped bring about the Israeli-Syrian military disengagement pact that has cleared the way for a full-scale Mideast peace conference in Geneva.

At his news conference, Kissinger was referring to allegations stemming from reports that he had ordered wiretaps on administration officials who had access to national security documents that were leaked to the press.

In his confirmation hearings before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee Sept. 15-17, Kissinger denied ordering the taps.

He said then he had provided the names of officials who had access to the documents, but had not suggested the taps nor did he ever order them used.

He also said he had received only infrequent reports of the taps and then only for 10 months. This all took place when he was President Nixon's national security adviser.

Tapes of conversations between Nixon and other officials recently heard in the House Judiciary Committee supposedly quoted the President as saying Kissinger had initiated some wiretaps.

Kissinger told a news conference last week the President must have been under some "misapprehension" or the tape was unclear.

However, at that news conference he changed his version slightly by saying he had never "directly" ordered any wiretaps.

GOP Sees Cash Surplus

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)— Senate Republicans were set to claim today that a surplus exists in the state treasury of some $138 million—not just the $60 million or so they talked about last week.

Sen. Howard C. Cook, R—1 Toledo, said he can list the sources of the money that will be available to the state in the fiscal year beginning July 1.

He is a member of the Senate Finance Committee which called a meeting (at 10 a.m.) today to review a GOP remake of Gov. John J. Gilligan's supplemental appropriations bill.

The committee last week rearranged priorities in Gilligan's bill, which proposed to spend $43.5 million in lottery proceeds, and added $40.50 million in tax relief to hike the overall outlay to $83.4 million. That was based on an estimate at the time of a $60 million surplus.

Gilligan and John B. Olsen, director of the office of Budget & Management, denied that a surplus exists at all—setting the stage for a partisan skirmish this week that threatens to end with no bill at all.

The Senate and House both were due back from weekend recess for floor sessions today opening what they hope will be the last week before summer adjournment. Leaders said they hope to adjourn no later than Wednesday or Thursday.

Several major pieces of legislation remain stymied—including no-fault auto insurance, an omnibus bill creating 87 new judgeships, a proposal to create a state housing finance agency, landlord-tenant relations, and a bill to increase taxing powers of county and regional transit authorities, among others.

Cook had a breakdown Monday of revenue estimates he said was prepared by the Legislative Budget Office. It listed a total of increased revenue estimates for the fiscal year starting July 1 of $181,850,430.

It included about $44 million in estimated lottery profits—the money Gilligan seeks to spend—but otherwise showed a surplus of $138 million.

Panel Eyes Watergate Witness List

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Judiciary Committee, driving to complete its impeachment inquiry by July 15, is resisting Republican members' demands that it decide now whether to call key Watergate witnesses.

It also is refusing to get into an argument with President Nixon over its right to subpoena White House tapes, ignoring his latest rebuff and making plans to issue a new subpoena.

Chairman Peter W. Rodino Jr., D-N.J., said after a meeting of committee Democrats on Monday that it was "important and urgent" that the committee meet its July 15 deadline for recommending to the House whether Nixon should be impeached.

If necessary, the House leadership wants an impeachment vote by the full House in late July or early August.

The Democratic caucus followed a similar meeting of the Republican members, who agreed unanimously to send Rodino a letter demanding the question about witnesses be settled this week.

Rodino has insisted that the presentation of all documentary evidence gathered in the inquiry be completed first.

The presentation, which continues in closed session today, is due to end June 19 or 20.

As for witnesses, Rodino has indicated the number the committee is likely to call will be limited.

Charles W. Colson, former White House counsel who has agreed to testify in pending Watergate trials, is the only potential witness in which the Democrats seem interested. The committee staff has been instructed to question him privately to determine what he has to say.

In their letter, the 17 Republicans say other former White House aides such as John W. Dean III, H. R. Haldeman and John D. Ehrlichman also should be called.

The Republicans said Nixon's refusal to comply with the subpoenas for tapes and other evidence makes it all the more important to call witnesses who might be able to supply the same information.

Most of the committee's 21 Democrats believe that except for Colson the testimony of all the other witnesses the Republicans want to call already has been given in other court and committee proceedings.

In rejecting the committee's fourth subpoena, Nixon also rejected its contention that the power of impeachment overrode any claim he could make to executive privilege.

"I cannot accept such a doctrine," Nixon said in a letter to Rodino. "No President could accept such a doctrine, which has never before been seriously asserted."

Nixon also said the committee would not be able to conclude from his refusal to comply with the subpoenas that he was withholding incriminating evidence—an inference the committee has said it is prepared to draw.

"A claim of privilege which is valid under the doctrine of separation of powers and is designed to protect the principle of separation of powers must be accepted without adverse inference, or else the privilege itself is undermined and the separation of powers nullified," Nixon said.

The committee, which sent Nixon a letter after each previous refusal to comply with a subpoena, may not do anything this time, Rodino said. "The committee's position is clear."

Rodino may call a business meeting of the committee for Thursday or Friday. But instead of taking up the question of witnesses, he said he would consider a request by special counsel John Doar for a new subpoena seeking tapes and other material dealing with the settlement of antitrust litigation against International Telephone & Telegraph Corp. and a rise in the milk support price ordered by Nixon in 1971. The committee asked for the material a month ago.

In other Watergate-related developments:

—White House lawyers reassessed the right to screen the material Ehrlichman has subpoenaed in the plumbers trial. They said Nixon himself will determine whether the material will be produced for trial.

—Watergate prosecutor Leon Jaworski and presidential lawyers asked the Supreme Court to make public the report of a grand jury that named Nixon as an unindicted co-conspirator in the Watergate cover-up.

—U.S. District Court Judge John J. Sirica began pretrial hearings in the cover-up case involving seven defendants, including some former top White House officials. Defense lawyers are seeking dismissal of grand jury indictments, mainly on the grounds of pretrial publicity.

—House Majority Leader Thomas P. O'Neill, D-Mass., predicted the House will impeach Nixon if the Judiciary Committee recommends it.

Pickaway County To Test Public Access Program

Pickaway County has been selected as one of five counties in Ohio for pilot testing of a public access program, Galen Mowery, chairman of the County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation (ASC) Committee, announced Monday.

Intended to increase the number of farms that permit hunting, the program offers benefits to the entire community, Mowery said.

"More people will be attracted to visit the county increasing business, urban residents will have more opportunity to enjoy our rural areas; and farm owners can earn a modest payment for permitting hunting," he said.

Sign-up for public access agreements is now underway, with a July 19 deadline for applications. Whole farms may be enrolled for payment rates that vary from zero to $3 per acre according to the suitability of each field for wildlife habitat.

To be eligible, a farm must first be signed-in this year's feed grain and wheat program, Mowery said.

The Division of Wildlife, Ohio Department of Natural Resources, is cooperating with ASCS in the public access program. The wildlife agency recommended the five counties in the program, Pickaway, Highland, Portage, Richland, and Williams, as ones offering good hunting opportunities in areas with high demand for hunting privileges.

The program has been tested the past two years in five other states, and expanded this year to include 10 states, including Ohio and neighboring Pennsylvania and Michigan. A total of $1.5 million was allocated for public access payments, with each of the 10 states having an equal share.

Interested persons may get full details on the program by calling at the Pickaway County ASCS Office, 1440 N. Court St., telephone 474-3151.

Pentagon Jargon Book Explains KISS Principle

WASHINGTON (AP) — The KISS principle, according to a new Army staff officer's guidebook, means "keep it simple, stupid."

This bit of advice is among hundreds of terms in a glossary intended to help an officers freshly assigned to the Pentagon understand some of the jargon he'll hear around the building.

The glossary is included in a 125-page paperback guidebook stocked with information on staff procedures, sample forms, telephone numbers, and personal services available during a duty tour in the "puzzle palace" (i.e., the Pentagon).

When a new staff officer is told he is to attend a "dog and pony show," he need only flip to page 81 and find that is "a briefing which uses a number of viewgraph slides, flip charts, or other training aids."

If someone tells him his staff paper is "flaky," he will know it "contains conclusions and recommendations that will not hold up under hard analysis."

His boss may criticize his paper's "fog index" as too high, in which case he will look for ways to make its wording less obscure and more readable.

Once he gets his boss' okay, he will have to scurry around and try to persuade all the interested agencies to "read off the same sheet of music" (get them coordinated into a common position).

In the course of this bureaucratic exercise, he may find that the final wording of his staff paper amounts to a "waffle" (the "intentional or unintentional use of phraseology which skirts the issue").

Above all, he will try to avoid a "glitch" (error) or to minimize "heartburn" (serious disagreement). He may find himself greeted by fellow officers affectionately as a "cannon cocker" (if he is an artillery man) or referred to somewhat disdainfully as a "muddy boots" (if he came from the infantry).

If he is ambitious to become a general some day, he'll want to be known as a "water walker" (or, as the guidebook puts it, "an officer with a singularly outstanding military record; usually an officer who has been selected for one or more early promotions").

Ohio Winter Wheat Crop Estimated

Markets

NEW YORK (AP) — Stock market prices pulled back today as a six-session rally bogged down in profit-taking.

The noon Dow Jones average of 30 industrials was down 3.83 at 855.84. Losers just about doubled the number of gainers in light trading on the New York Stock Exchange.

Analysts said it seemed the momentum of last week's sharp advance had been largely dispelled by the failure of a prime rate cut posted by New York's First National City Bank last Friday to spread immediately to other big banks.

Textron, the Big Board volume leader, gave up 1/4 to 17 in a 161,700-share block trade. The company has a major role in a proposed plan to restructure Lockheed Aircraft, the financially-pressed aerospace giant.

On the American Stock Exchange, the market value index was down .37 at 86.22.

The Amex' most-active issue was Airwick Industries, unchanged at 12 1/4. The NYSE composite index of some 1,500 common stocks retreated .37 to 48.62.

Scioto Pollution Is Topic Of Chillicothe Public Meet

The Ohio Environmental Protection Agency (Ohio EPA) will hold a public meeting to discuss water pollution problems in the Scioto River Basin and how they can be resolved, Monday in Chillicothe.

"Communities in the basin, which extends from West of Kenton in Hardin County and North Marion to the Ohio River in Portsmouth, are discharging millions of gallons of untreated or partially treated sewage into the river daily," said Ira L. Whitman, director of the Ohio EPA.

"This pollution has greatly reduced

Italy Thrown Into Crisis

ROME (AP) — The resignation of Premier Mariano Rumor plunged Italy into a political vacuum today, compounding the nation's worst economic crisis since World War II. Rumor quit Monday night after the Socialist party, the No. 2 faction in his coalition government, and the trade unions refused to go along with his proposals for an austerity program of tight credit and higher taxes to stave off national bankruptcy. It was the second center-left coalition headed by Rumor to collapse in 11 months.

Italy's 36th government since World War II lasted only three months. President Giovanni Leone asked Rumor and his cabinet to continue in office as a caretaker regime until a new government is formed. The president was expected to start consultations with political leaders today in search of a new premier.

The government fell at Italy's darkest hour in its 28 years as a republic. Inflation is soaring at the rate of 20 per cent a year. The government's foreign credit is exhausted. The lira has dropped 18 per cent in a year. The foreign trade deficit is more than a billion dollars a month. Crime is up, and political terrorism is plaguing the country.

"Italy is deeply sick," said Transport Minister Luigi Preti, a Democratic Socialist. "It is clear that this is the most serious of the government crises since the war."

With no party having a majority in Parliament and no majority possible without the participation of the Christian Democrats, the largest and dominant party, Leone has few options.

He could ask Rumor or another Christian Democrat to try to form another coalition with the Socialists. Or he could call for new elections, a prospect that doesn't appeal to the Christian Democrats because of the beating they took in last month's referendum on divorce.

Boy Scouts Have Own Watergate

CHICAGO (AP) — The Boy Scouts of America faces charges by some paid staff members that it padded membership rolls and possibly cheated to gain additional federal money.

"If we were in the business of covering it up, it could be the Watergate of the Boy Scouts," responds Alden G. Barber, chief executive of the Boy Scouts.

"Some of our people cheat— quite frankly" on membership rolls, Barber added. "While we always felt that scouting should expand and grow, we never condoned or encouraged less than ethical practices or conduct."

But Barber said Monday he hadn't heard of possible cheating to gain federal funds until a two-part series that began Sunday in the Chicago Tribune.

The problem apparently lies in the $65 million "Boypower 76" recruitment campaign that began in 1968 to add two million boys to scouting ranks by 1976. The program, designed to push total Scout membership to six million, is nearly two years behind schedule.

Barber said some staff members apparently created fictitious members and troops to reach membership quotas.

He said the organization has known about the abuses since August and that national Boy Scout headquarters in North Brunswick, N.J., has investigated 10 local councils. He said disciplinary actions are expected shortly in three cities. He declined to name them.

Barber said the number of phantom scouts isn't known but that the cheating seems confined mainly to the professional organization.

The Tribune said additional federal money was obtained through the padding procedures.

The Tribune reported that some staff members said difficulties seem particularly critical in Chicago, home of the Boy Scouts' largest council. Some Scout executives estimated that only about 25 to 50 per cent of the city's 87,000 registered Scouts actually exist.

fishing and other water-related recreational opportunities for the public and we are inviting any concerned citizen to attend."

"At the same time, these discharges have increased the cost of treating sewage in communities where industries have not been adequately charged for the cost of municipal treatment of their wastes," Whitman noted. "The cost of water treatment in downstream communities has also risen accordingly."

The meeting will inform area residents about the Ohio EPA's River Basin Water Quality Waste Load Allocation Report. The report, which will provide the basis for planning a water quality management program for the basin, describes the types of water pollution problems in the river. It also ranks municipal dischargers in order of severity, predicts future water consumption and discharges by residents and industry along the river, and calculates the amount by which such effluent must be reduced to meet state and federal requirements. Information included in the report also serves as the basis for issuing water discharge (NPDES) permits.

The Federal Water Pollution Control Act Amendments of 1972 instructs each state to adopt and periodically revise water quality plans for each river basin, Whitman said. Continual input is necessary from both government representatives and the general public.

Whitman said the final plan compiled by the Ohio EPA will contain the report, a ranking of sections of the river according to severity of pollution, an analysis of alternative measures needed to improve or maintain water quality, and timetables for Ohio EPA action. The plan will also provide a means of coordinating planning for municipal facilities and area-wide comprehensive water programs in heavily polluted metropolitan areas.

The public meeting will be held at

Two Accidents Investigated By Patrol

Two separate accidents were investigated Monday afternoon within an hour of each other by the State Highway Patrol.

A three-car accident that resulted in injuries to three persons is still under investigation by Ptl. Robert Hartsook. Arthur J. Linn Jr., 52, Orient, was driving an auto north on Route 62 and stopped to make a left turn onto Lambert Road at approximately 12:57 p.m.

A second auto, driven by Eugene G. Wendel, 77, Mt. Sterling, struck the Linn auto in the rear forcing it to go left of center. The Linn auto then struck a southbound vehicle driven by Nelson J. Fox, 43, of Columbus.

Linn and two passengers in his auto, Arthur J. Linn Sr., 87, of Gahanna and Mary C. Linn were injured and taken directly to Mt. Carmel Hospital.

Driver Allen E. Jones, 24, Chillicothe, received visible injuries in another accident when he apparently fell asleep at the wheel at 1:50 p.m. on Route 104 just north of the Route 762 intersection.

According to the report made by Ptl. A. R. Svetek, Jones' auto went off the right side of the road, striking a mailbox and a cement pillar. The injured man was taken to Mercy Hospital by the Hamilton Township Emergency Squad.

NEW YORK (AP) — Stock market prices pulled back today as a six-session rally bogged down in profit-taking.

The noon Dow Jones average of 30 industrials was down 3.83 at 855.84. Losers just about doubled the number of gainers in light trading on the New York Stock Exchange.

Analysts said it seemed the momentum of last week's sharp advance had been largely dispelled by the failure of a prime rate cut posted by New York's First National City Bank last Friday to spread immediately to other big banks.

Texttron, the Big Board volume leader, gave up 1/4 to 17 in a 161,700-share block trade. The company has a major role in a proposed plan to restructure Lockheed Aircraft, the financially-distressed aerospace giant.

On the American Stock Exchange, the market value index was down .37 at 86.22.

The Amex' most-active issue was Airwick Industries, unchanged at 12 1/4. The NYSE composite index of some 1,500 common stocks retreated .37 to 48.62.

"At the same time, these discharges have increased the cost of treating sewage in communities where industries have not been adequately charged for the cost of municipal treatment of their wastes," Whitman noted. "The cost of water treatment in downstream communities has also risen accordingly."

The meeting will inform area residents about the Ohio EPA's River Basin Water Quality Waste Load Allocation Report. The report, which will provide the basis for planning a water quality management program for the basin, describes the types of water pollution problems in the river. It also ranks municipal dischargers in order of severity, predicts future water consumption and discharges by residents and industry along the river, and calculates the amount by which such effluent must be reduced to meet state and federal requirements. Information included in the report also serves as the basis for issuing water discharge (NPDES) permits.

The Federal Water Pollution Control Act Amendments of 1972 instructs each state to adopt and periodically revise water quality plans for each river basin, Whitman said. Continual input is necessary from both government representatives and the general public.

Whitman said the final plan compiled by the Ohio EPA will contain the report, a ranking of sections of the river according to severity of pollution, an analysis of alternative measures needed to improve or maintain water quality, and timetables for Ohio EPA action. The plan will also provide a means of coordinating planning for municipal facilities and area-wide comprehensive water programs in heavily polluted metropolitan areas.

The public meeting will be held at

Two Accidents Investigated By Patrol

Two separate accidents were investigated Monday afternoon within an hour of each other by the State Highway Patrol.

A three-car accident that resulted in injuries to three persons is still under investigation by Ptl. Robert Hartsook. Arthur J. Linn Jr., 52, Orient, was driving an auto north on Route 62 and stopped to make a left turn onto Lambert Road at approximately 12:57 p.m.

A second auto, driven by Eugene G. Wendel, 77, Mt. Sterling, struck the Linn auto in the rear forcing it to go left of center. The Linn auto then struck a southbound vehicle driven by Nelson J. Fox, 43, of Columbus.

Linn and two passengers in his auto, Arthur J. Linn Sr., 87, of Gahanna and Mary C. Linn were injured and taken directly to Mt. Carmel Hospital.

Driver Allen E. Jones, 24, Chillicothe, received visible injuries in another accident when he apparently fell asleep at the wheel at 1:50 p.m. on Route 104 just north of the Route 762 intersection.

According to the report made by Ptl. A. R. Svetek, Jones's auto went off the right side of the road, striking a mailbox and a cement pillar. The injured man was taken to Mercy Hospital by the Hamilton Township Emergency Squad.

Award Given Judge Ammer

Judge William Ammer of the Pickaway County Court of Common Pleas has been selected to receive an award for Excellent Judicial Service. In order to receive this award a judge must have had current criminal and personal injury dockets as of Dec. 31, 1973.

Under the Rules of Superintendence promulgated by the Supreme Court of Ohio, a judge must have no criminal cases pending for more than six months from arraignment on an indictment or information, and no personal injury cases pending for more than 24 months from filing for his docket to be considered current.

"The tremendous progress which the Common Pleas Courts have made in reducing the backlog of cases and bringing cases to trial more quickly is due to the efforts of judges like Judge Ammer," Chief Justice O'Neill said.

Rev. Walters Attends Bethel Series

The Rev. Henry A. Walters of The First Presbyterian Church is attending an intensive two-week orientation session on the Bethel Series, an international Bible study program designed to provide new Christian awareness for church members of all faiths.

This is the 14th year that the Adult Christian Education Foundation (ACEF), a non-profit organization, has administered the Series. The orientation clinics are attended by pastors and Christian education directors, who return to their churches to train teachers. The lay teachers, in turn, present an overview study of Scriptures to the adult members.

This year, 400 congregations will send representatives to the Madison orientation sessions. In the 14-year history of the Series, more than 3100 congregations, representing 17 different denominations, have involved more than 500,000 lay teachers and students in the Bethel Series.

The 40-week study program provides students with a firm foundation of Biblical understanding, an incentive and overview for further study, and a basis for interpreting the Scriptures as they relate to everyday Christian living.

The Bethel Series is international in scope. It is being used throughout the U.S., in a number of foreign countries, and has been translated into six foreign languages.

Urge Better EPA Work

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. John J. Gilligan was urged by Ohio's consulting engineers today to demand better performance by the state and federal environmental protection agencies.

"Constant bickering and footdragging between the state and federal EPA groups has delayed water and sewerage treatment facilities and interceptor lines in almost every county in the state," the engineers said in a statement.

The statement, from the Consulting Engineers of Ohio and the Consulting Engineers Council of Ohio, declared the release last week of the wastewater funding priority list was 11 months late.

The organizations said the delay "had several bad effects on the citizens of Ohio, including more pollution and environmental unpleasantness, delays in the development of cities and towns and drastic increases in costs due to a high rate of inflation during the delay."

The federal EPA should abandon its "czar-like attitude" toward state organizations, the engineers said, and "if Ohio EPA's level of performance is not improved . . . Gov. Gilligan should act accordingly and revise the entire EPA organization."

National Health Plan Delay Seen

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — There's little chance Congress will approve a national health insurance plan this year, the president of the American Osteopathic Association said here today.

Dr. John C. Taylor of Kansas City told a meeting of the Ohio Osteopathic Association said there are just too many proposals before Congress, each of which must be examined carefully, to make a choice likely this year.

State To Look At Own Agencies?

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — It may be too late to come this year, but the General Assembly in the not-too-distant future probably will ask state government to take a close look at its bureaucratic self.

A pair of proposals caught the attention of more than a few lawmakers at the current session which is nearing adjournment. One came in late and the other failed to inspire enough members of the Senate Rules Committee to get it past that obstacle.

Early in the year Sen. Paul R. Matia, R-25 Westlake, offered a bill creating yet another state commission to evaluate the more than 180 boards and commissions that help run the government.

Matia said the purpose of the envisioned seven-member commission would be to eliminate agencies that were unnecessary to improve those remaining. Many have been added piecemeal over the years and, perhaps, no longer are needed, he said.

The Westlake lawmaker's bill moved promptly through the Senate Ways and Means Committee only to become stymied in the powerful Rules Committee with little hope of getting out before adjournment.

In the House, Rep. Thomas P. Gilmartin, D-51 Youngstown, took another approach to the same basic problem. But, he didn't get his bill in until almost mid-May. His proposal called for the legislature to study and approve the rules and regulations under which the proliferating boards and commissions operate.

Gilmartin claims that at least some of the boards and commissions adopt rules and operate on their own without conducting hearings under the Administrative Procedures Act.

"There may not be a lot of them doing it, but some are," he said. "That's what we want to find out."

Gilmartin said quite a few of his colleagues expressed interest in the measure, but indicated it received a cool reception from some officials in the Gilligan administration—cool enough, apparently, to put his proposal to rest for this year.

Early in the year Sen. Paul R. Matia, R-2 Westlake, offered a bill creating yet another state commission to evaluate the more than 180 boards and commissions that help run the government.

Matia said the purpose of the envisioned seven-member commission would be to eliminate agencies that were unnecessary to improve those remaining. Many have been added piecemeal over the years and, perhaps, no longer are needed, he said.

The Westlake lawmaker's bill moved promptly through the Senate Ways and Means Committee only to become stymied in the powerful Rules Committee with little hope of getting out before adjournment.

In the House, Rep. Thomas P. Gilmartin, D-51 Youngstown, took another approach to the same basic problem. But, he didn't get his bill in until almost mid-May. His proposal called for the legislature to study and approve the rules and regulations under which the proliferating boards and commissions operate.

Gilmartin claims that at least some of the boards and commissions adopt rules and operate on their own without conducting hearings under the Administrative Procedures Act.

"There may not be a lot of them doing it, but some are," he said. "That's what we want to find out."

Gilmartin said quite a few of his colleagues expressed interest in the measure, but indicated it received a cool reception from some officials in the Gilligan administration— cool enough, apparently, to put his proposal to rest for this year.

Are Snakes Dangerous

Elemental horror felt for snakes is great, but even poisonous snakes kill very few people in America. An average of 50 Americans a year are killed by snakes, scorpions, black widow spiders, gila monsters and other poisonous creatures.

But in some parts of the world death from snakebite is a terrible hazard. The worst area of all, the World Health Organization reports, is probably in the Irrawaddy and Chindwin Valleys of Burma, where the rate is reported to be 30 to 35 deaths a year per 100,000.

America, outside of zoos, has only four snakes that are poisonous — the rattlesnake, the copperhead, the water moccasin and the coral snake. None is among the world's most lethal snakes, which include the tiger snake, certain kraits and vipers, the fer-de-lance, the mamba and the bushmaster.

If one of the American quartet strikes, the bitten individual will probably recover with prompt treatment. In general, these snakes are not particularly aggressive compared to the snakes of other continents.

Fear of snakes is easy to understand when it is realized how incredibly poisonous their venom is. One and one-half milligrams of the venom of the blue krait, injected in the veins, is enough to kill a man of average size. A single drop would be enough to kill more than 40 men. One drop of the venom of an American coral snake would be enough to kill a dozen men.

Both these killers, however, have very short fangs, not more than one-tenth of an inch long, and the average dose they inject is minute.

The Western diamond rattlesnake has x poison that is far less deadly; the fatal dose is more than two drops. But his fangs are about half an inch long, and if he strikes he will probably inject three or four drops of venom. That's more than enough to kill—provided it all goes into the veins instead of being partly stopped by clothing or removed by first-aid measures, and provided anti-toxin isn't given in time.

But in terms of snakebite danger, the United States is a fairly safe country to live in.

NEW YORK — Certain Unknown Facts About Assorted Known Headliners According to Sources Close to the Balkans Tinderbox:

President Nixon smokes a pipe, when out of camera range.

Mamie Eisenhower sent her son John — then engaged in action in the Korean War — a jug of maraschino cherries via an Air Force plane, for his "Old Fashioneds." Like a chump, he turned it over to his general's mess. Not General Eisenhower's mess, of course. John called his father Boss, not President or, as Ike preferred upon leaving the White House, General.

Henry Wallace, the former Vice President of the United States, was asked his choice of the man who would be chosen by Lyndon Johnson in 1964 to share the Democratic ticket. Wallace said, "I would think Lyndon would choose Senator Hubert Humphrey. Hubert's a fine, honest man. The only fault I can find in him is that he has an unhappy habit of turning his mouth on and then walking away from it, leaving it running."

Dr. Billy Graham, who was pictured as stricken by the cuss words and other (deleted) passages on his friend President Nixon's (obscenity) tapes, advertised heavily after being confronted by questions from the press. One costly ad read:

"Youth Night — First of three One-Hour TV specials with BILLY GRAHAM — Cliff Barrows and the 4,000 voice crusade choir!"

"Also George Beverly Shea — Tedd Smith — John Innes — special guests — Mike McCoy, defensive tackle Green Bay Packers — Myrtle Hall — Bob and Jane Henley — Dr. Bill Bright — the Hawaiians — Lori Johathan — Rev. Alan Early."

Then he packed all those tailored clothes he and the Rev. John McLaughlin, S.J., wear, and shuffled off to play golf with Vice President Jerry Ford. Even though it was Nixon's day off and he had the afternoon on his hands.

My favorite pilot, Col. Anthony F. (for Frank Merriwell) Story, USAF (ret.), who flew General MacArthur into a lot of airfields that didn't exist, is said to be considering reactivation, to be ready to pilot the first shuttle vehicle that will come back to earth after prospecting in space toward the end of this decade.

The concrete landing strip that will receive the returning spacecraft, hopefully, is now under construction at the Kennedy Space Center. It will be 15,000 feet long, 300 feet wide, and 16 inches thick, according to sources close to the National Aeronautics and Space Administration Association, Washington, D. C. The reason it is being built longer, wider and stronger than any other strip in the world is that it must accommodate an 83-ton craft returning at great speed, red hot from friction with the atmosphere, at a 15- to 20-degree angle.

The pilot will have only one opportunity to land with the other member or members of the crew and the precious informational cargo aboard. There won't be enough in-board power to climb out of a bad landing, make a go-around, and try again with a vehicle that will be the size of a DC-9.

No matter what kind of landing, the pilot's only options will be to squirt slow-down parachutes out the rear of the 122-foot shuttle, apply his wheel brakes, and, that failing, plunge into the steel net at the end of the 3-mile strip.

It's going to take a pro like Story, son.

Chris Evert is one of the most beautiful and exciting personalities on today's sports scene. My God! — how she can run. What guts she showed in winning that big purse recently! What a champ she is, considering her tender age! She'll be one of the greats, no question.

I'm talking about Chris Evert the thoroughbred filly. Wish I could be as enthusiastic about the pretty bi-ped who bears her name. The other Chris Evert plays tennis. She looks as ethereal as Mia Farrow in "The Great Gatsby." Her chief flaw — as she lobs while her opponent is still in the back-court, or tries a gentle dropshot, or pats over a serve — is that she's about as exciting to watch as Bobby Fischer practicing chess.

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — Mention "white-collar crime" and you're apt to evoke images of mild-mannered bank clerks skimming a few hundred dollars or office workers swiping company supplies.

But state and federal officials have uncovered in Utah what they say is white-collar crime running into millions of dollars, and they're filing charges in an attempt to halt it.

At a time when 14 individuals and three companies were indicted, federal officials said the crackdown was just beginning.

"When all criminal cases are finally completed, the Internal Revenue Service expects to have presented cases to the Department of Justice and the U.S. attorneys' offices for prosecution in excess of 60 individuals on various federal tax violations," said C. Evan Wride, acting district director of the IRS in Utah.

The IRS attack on white-collar crime in Utah is being made by a special team of investigators operating under the title of "Project Shell." The name is derived from so-called shell corporations — publicly held, dormant companies with no assets or liabilities.

Of 63,000 corporations listed by the secretary of state, roughly half are shells, an assistant secretary of state says. Promoters buy control of the dormant companies, sell their stock and make off with the money.

Wride says one group acquired a company whose stock was worthless in late 1968, pumped questionable assets into it and managed to sell the stock for $13 a share.

W. Jerry Ungricht, assistant Utah attorney general, was hired nearly three years ago to investigate securities problems.

He says the state attorney general's investigation into securities frauds "mushroomed to the point where we felt we needed federal assistance." The federal Law Enforcement Planning Agency this month approved nearly $100,000 for a "Economic Crime Unit" to help the state.

Ungricht admits the state has been lax until recent years in policing securities transactions. He said the Uniform Securities Act, adopted in the early 1960s, is mainstay of state prosecutors. "There was practically no prosecution up until now. County attorneys just weren't equipped to deal with it. It's very complicated and they didn't have the staffs to turn loose for several months of investigation on a single case," he said.

Agents estimate stolen stocks in the area run into the hundreds of thousands of dollars and phony stocks into the millions of dollars.

Charles D. Brennan, agent-in-charge of the Salt Lake City FBI office, said individuals are losing $5,000 to $50,000 in stock swindles.

He said fraudulent stock issued on Utah-based companies is turning up all over the country and in foreign countries.

"I told you not to inhale."

Speaking Of Your Health

by Lester L. Coleman, M.D.

I am having a terrible problem with my wife. We are both 74-years-old. She is given all kinds of pills, but the one she keeps begging for is a drug called Talwin. Could she be addicted to this drug?

MR. A. V., N.Y.

Dear Mr. V.:

When Talwin was first introduced as a pain killer, it was quickly recognized as being remarkably effective.

As frequently occurs, it takes a considerable amount of trial and use to learn all of the side effects of a new drug.

It has been found that this excellent drug can cause a dependence that closely resembles a form of addiction. It is for this very reason that Talwin and similar drugs are never prescribed for long periods of time without the complete control and supervision of the doctor.

I'm caught in a bind. Our doctor suggested that I feed my 5-year-old son apples for his constipation problem. When our regular doctor went on vacation his substitute doctor said, "Absolutely no apples," and gave me a diet instead. Please rush your answer.

Mrs. S. N. W., N.C.

Dear Mrs. W.:

I am rushing my answer only to emphasize the unnecessary urgency you feel about a relatively insignificant problem.

I wonder, really, if there has not been too much concentration on your son's bowel movements.

Children readily reflect a parent's anxiety on this subject. This alone could perpetuate the problem.

I believe that whether or not your boy eats apples is not nearly as important as your relaxing about the problem.

Are there any adverse medical effects from pipe smoking? I don't inhale.

Mr. M. S. K., Miss.

Dear Mr. K.:

The toxic effects of pipe tobacco seem to be less than cigarettes.

Even if we were to disregard these toxic symptoms, there still is an adverse effect on the lungs caused by the smoke itself.

Smoke is a pollutant and as such must affect the free and easy exchange of oxygen and carbon dioxide in the lungs.

Public health officials warn that all smoke from tobacco can, over a long period of time, be hazardous not only to the smoker but to those who are exposed to it.

5th Amendment Only Nixon Out?

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The chairman of the Senate Watergate Committee says President Nixon can defy the House Judiciary Committee's impeachment probe only by claiming protection under the Fifth Amendment.

U.S. Sen. Sam J. Ervin, Jr., D-N.C., made the comment in a news conference Sunday before addressing graduates of the University of Cincinnati.

Other commencement speakers in Ohio Sunday included U.S. Atty. Gen. William B. Saxbe, humor columnist Art Buchwald, Mrs. Shirley Temple Black and astronaut Alan L. Bean.

In his news conference Sunday, Ervin said that if President Nixon "refuses to surrender to the House Judiciary Committee information in his possession, he would, in my opinion, be committing an impeachable offense."

"I say the President should have turned over all tapes and documents unless he was willing to plead the Fifth Amendment (against self-incrimination) which, under the U.S. Constitution, he has a perfect right to do," Ervin said.

"The President could have spared this nation the agony of Watergate if he had acted with the forthrightness his office calls for," the senator said.

At commencement ceremonies at Urbana College, Saxbe told graduates that, "If we want better days, it all comes down in the final analysis to a matter of individual responsibility and morality."

Saxbe said the implications of Watergate "touch each of us. Each man and woman, at some point in their lives, will come face-to-face with their own personal Watergate."

"It may be something that seems relatively minor on the grand scale of things—like a little fudging on an examination."

"Or it may be something that is really quite grand on that grand scale—defaulting on substantial trust, whether in government, private industry, the professions, the academic world or private life," Saxbe said.

The attorney general said a person

Kissinger To Ireland?

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A group of Ohio state senators of Irish descent say they're going to ask President Nixon to send Secretary of State Henry Kissinger on a peacemaking mission to Northern Ireland.

State Sen. Robert O'Shaughnessy, D-15 Columbus, said the senate resolution being offered would ask the President "to prevail upon the secretary of state to use the same aptitude that he has used in the Arab-Israeli war, to use his facilities in Northern Ireland to quell the problem there."

"People's lives are being lost, and all the world wants that war to stop," O'Shaughnessy said.

"The U. S. has been successful in mediating an honorable and equitable solution to many world crises, including the Vietnam conflict and the Middle East crisis," said O'Shaughnessy, "it is only proper that it should seek to aid the people of a land which has given us so many of our first citizens and contributed so greatly to our heritage."

The resolution asking for Kissinger's help will go first to the Senate Rules Committee.

5 Are Qualified As Independents

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Five persons have qualified to run as independent candidates in Ohio's November general election, Secretary of State Ted W. Brown said today.

Brown said Nancy Brown Lazar of East Cleveland will be on the ballot for governor, Herman Kirsch of Shaker Heights for lieutenant governor and Kathleen G. Harroff of Bedford, James George Steele Jr. of Cleveland and Richard B. Kay of Cleveland for the U.S. Senate.

Brown said each of the five filed nominating petitions listing between 7,000 and 10,000 signatures.

LAFF - A - DAY

"I told you not to inhale."

Speaking Of Your Health

by Lester L. Coleman, M.D.

I am having a terrible problem with my wife. We are both 74-years-old. She is given all kinds of pills, but the one she keeps begging for is a drug called Talwin. Could she be addicted to this drug?

MR. A. V., N.Y.

Dear Mr. V.:

When Talwin was first introduced as a pain killer, it was quickly recognized as being remarkably effective.

As frequently occurs, it takes a considerable amount of time and use to learn all of the side effects of a new drug.

It has been found that this excellent drug can cause a dependence that closely resembles a form of addiction. It is for this very reason that Talwin and similar drugs are never prescribed for long periods of time without the complete control and supervision of the doctor.

I'm caught in a bind. Our doctor suggested that I feed my 5-year-old son apples for his constipation problem. When our regular doctor went on vacation his substitute doctor said, "Absolutely no apples," and gave me a diet instead. Please rush your answer.

Mrs. S. N. W., N.C.

Dear Mrs. W.:

I am rushing my answer only to emphasize the unnecessary urgency you feel about a relatively insignificant problem.

I wonder, really, if there has not been too much concentration on your son's bowel movements.

Children readily reflect a parent's anxiety on this subject. This alone could perpetuate the problem.

I believe that whether or not your boy eats apples is not nearly as important as your relaxing about the problem.

Are there any adverse medical effects from pipe smoking? I don't inhale.

Mr. M. S. K., Miss.

Dear Mr. K.:

The toxic effects of pipe tobacco seem to be less than cigarettes.

Even if we were to disregard these toxic symptoms, there still is an adverse effect on the lungs caused by the smoke itself.

Smoke is a pollutant and as such must affect the free and easy exchange of oxygen and carbon dioxide in the lungs.

Public health officials warn that all smoke from tobacco can, over a long period of time, be hazardous not only to the smoker but to those who are exposed to it.

5th Amendment Only Nixon Out?

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The chairman of the Senate Watergate Committee says President Nixon can defy the House Judiciary Committee's impeachment probe only by claiming protection under the Fifth Amendment.

U.S. Sen. Sam J. Ervin, Jr., D-N.C., made the comment in a news conference Sunday before addressing graduates of the University of Cincinnati.

Other commencement speakers in Ohio Sunday included U.S. Atty. Gen. William B. Saxbe, humor columnist Art Buchwald, Mrs. Shirley Temple Black and astronaut Alan L. Bean.

In his news conference Sunday, Ervin said that if President Nixon "refuses to surrender to the House Judiciary Committee information in his possession, he would, in my opinion, be committing an impeachable offense."

"I say the President should have turned over all tapes and documents unless he was willing to plead the Fifth Amendment (against self-incrimination) which, under the U.S. Constitution, he has a perfect right to do," Ervin said.

"The President could have spared this nation the agony of Watergate if he had acted with the forthrightness his office calls for," the senator said.

At commencement ceremonies at Urbana College, Saxbe told graduates that, "If we want better days, it all comes down in the final analysis to a matter of individual responsibility and morality."

Saxbe said the implications of Watergate "touch each of us. Each man and woman, at some point in their lives, will come face-to-face with their own personal Watergate."

"It may be something that seems relatively minor on the grand scale of things—like a little fudging on an examination."

"Or it may be something that is really quite grand on that grand scale—defaulting on substantial trust, whether in government, private industry, the professions, the academic world or private life," Saxbe said.

The attorney general said a person

Planes In Search Of Missing Aircraft

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Planes of the Ohio Civil Air Patrol were searching today for a light aircraft that disappeared on a flight between Columbus and Islip, N.Y.

The CAP said the last known position of the plane was in the Zanesville area at 7 p.m. Friday.

"who cheats in large or small ways corrodes not only himself. His actions are like a pebble thrown into pond."

"The ripple effect that results from one person's actions may be small," Saxbe said. "But in the millions, the ripples can turn into a deadly tidal wave that can engulf a great deal of what we cherish most about our system."

Kissinger To Ireland?

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A group of Ohio state senators of Irish descent say they're going to ask President Nixon to send Secretary of State Henry Kissinger on a peacemaking mission to Northern Ireland.

State Sen. Robert O'Shaughnessy, D-15 Columbus, said the senate resolution being offered would ask the President "to prevail upon the secretary of state to use the same aptitude that he has used in the Arab-Israeli war, to use his facilities in Northern Ireland to quell the problem there."

"People's lives are being lost, and all the world wants that war to stop," O'Shaughnessy said.

"The U. S. has been successful in mediating an honorable and equitable solution to many world crises, including the Vietnam conflict and the Middle East crisis," said O'Shaughnessy, "it is only proper that it should seek to aid the people of a land which has given us so many of our finest citizens and contributed so greatly to our heritage."

The resolution asking for Kissinger's help will go first to the Senate Rules Committee.

5 Are Qualified As Independents

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Five persons have qualified to run as independent candidates in Ohio's November general election, Secretary of State Ted W. Brown said today.

Brown said Nancy Brown Lazar of East Cleveland will be on the ballot for governor, Herman Kirsch of Shaker Heights for lieutenant governor and Kathleen G. Harroff of Bedford, James George Steele Jr. of Cleveland and Richard B. Kay of Cleveland for the U.S. Senate.

Brown said each of the five filed nominating petitions listing between 7,000 and 10,000 signatures.

They'll Do It Every Time

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

Black Boyfriend Shocks

DEAR ABBY: Judy, our 22-year-old daughter, is a graduate student, living out of state. She's pretty and popular and always has been a leader and an honor student.

Judy had written us about a very fine black girl she had become friendly with at college. We live in a small mid-western town and never had anything to do with the few black families who live on the highway.

Judy phoned a few days ago and asked if she could bring a young man home for a visit. I said: "Certainly."

Then she said: "He's black."

I asked: "HOW black?"

She said: "About as black as black can get." Then she went on to tell me that he was the brother of her college friend, also a graduate student, and an outstanding person, etc.

I managed to control my emotions, and asked whether she was serious about him. She said: "Possibly, but I don't think I'm lucky enough to get him." (My stomach turned over!)

Abby, no one in her father's family or mine would ever understand if Judy were to marry a black man. I can see nothing but heartaches and problems ahead for her if she married him. I'm not a bigot, but we just aren't ready for something like this. I told her not to bring him home until I could prepare her father for the shock, so she said: "Unless you will treat him properly, I'd rather not subject him to any humiliation." That's where we left it.

Say Colson Told Nixon Of Payoffs

NEW YORK (AP) — Time magazine says ex-White House aide Charles W. Colson told Watergate investigators he warned President Nixon about the Watergate cover-up two months before Nixon says he found out about it.

Quoting "knowledgeable people close to Colson," the magazine said in its latest issue that Colson has told the investigators he talked of the cover-up with the President in January and February of 1973.

Nixon has said he learned on March 21, 1973, of attempts to cover up the break-in from former White House counsel John W. Dean III.

Colson pleaded guilty last week to obstruction of justice in connection with the burglary of the Los Angeles office of Daniel Ellsberg's psychiatrist.

According to Time, in January Colson "told the President: 'Something is going on here that is very wrong. There's got to be an investigation.'"

Colson quotes Nixon as replying, "What do you think we ought to do?" Colson's answer: "I'll see what I can find out."

Time said that by February Colson learned of payments to the original Watergate defendants that allegedly were approved by former Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell.

"Colson promptly warned the President that these payoffs were taking place," Time said. "Nixon's alleged reply: 'What do you mean?' Mitchell says he's innocent."

The magazine's account said Colson told H.R. Haldeman, then-White House chief of staff, that Mitchell must come forward and accept blame for the payoffs.

"Haldeman answered: 'If Mitchell goes, he's going to take you with him,'" said Time.

Time also said that Colson told investigators he discussed executive clemency with Nixon for convicted Watergate conspirator E. Howard Hunt after Hunt's wife was killed in a Chicago plane crash in December 1972, but the magazine said it could not be learned if Colson contended Nixon approved the clemency.

Miranda Ruling Limited By Court

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court ruled today that the failure of police to inform a defendant of his full legal rights does not bar the use of all evidence obtained from him.

The court, in an 8-to-1 ruling, reversed a lower court decision overturning the rape conviction of a Michigan man who was not told during police interrogation that he had a right to legal counsel.

The decision limits the scope of the landmark Miranda decision requiring that criminal defendants be fully advised of their legal rights.

SLEEPLESS NIGHTS

DEAR SLEEPLESS: Unless you and your husband can treat your daughter's friend as though he were a Caucasian with a sun tan, tell her not to bring him home. But don't be surprised if Judy doesn't come either. She's old enough to choose her own friends. And by the way, what is your definition of a bigot?

DEAR ABBY: My career is my home and family, and I am proud of it. But for some strange reason, when a housewife is asked what she does, she very apologetically says: "I'm ONLY a housewife." This irritates me no end.

When I am asked what I do, I proudly say: "I am an oikologist." The word comes from the Greek words "oikos," which means house, and "ologist," which means "one who studies" or is "an expert in."

Please pass this on for other housewives. Perhaps they will feel more important if they use it, too.

OIKOLOGIST

DEAR OIK: I wouldn't recommend springin that one the average Joe without defining it. The "oikologist" might be mistaken for an expert on pigs.

DEAR ABBY: I hope you'll put this in your column for those nice people who are guilty, but are not aware of it.

Two months ago I had a breast removed, also the lymph glands under my arm. (Cancer.)

I am doing fine, and I look fine, so I started to go to my club meetings and to church.

Just about every other person I meet is so happy to see me up and around again that they slap or grip my sore arm. I'm sure they don't realize how painful this is because they don't connect my operation with my arm. They are dear people, and I wouldn't hurt them for the world, but, Abby, my arm is still swollen has fever in it, and when it's gripped it hurts like mad. It's getting so I hate to go anywhere because I'm afraid of this painful greeting I'm sure to get.

Maybe some of those nice but slap-happy people will read this and take note.

Daughter Joins Mother As Partner In Law Firm

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Lucille Coughlin waited until she was a grandmother before returning to college to earn her law degree.

So did her daughter Nancy. Lucille Coughlin was born in October. So was daughter Nancy. Lucille Coughlin was an only child. So was daughter Nancy. Lucille Coughlin taught a course in secretarial skills before she became a lawyer.

So did daughter Nancy. Lucille Coughlin married a lawyer. So did daughter Nancy.

Now there's one more item in the parallel lives of Mrs. Coughlin, 73, and daughter Nancy Appleton, 46. Mrs. Appleton last month became a partner in her mother's law firm.

It was in 1952 that Mrs. Coughlin entered the University of Miami at age 51 to earn a law degree so she could be a partner in the firm that belonged to her husband, John. She had been his legal secretary for many years.

She was graduated cum laude from the law school. When he died seven years ago, she took over the firm. Nancy followed in mother's footsteps 18 years later. She entered the same law school, completing the three-year course in two years and three months.

Mrs. Coughlin is proud that she still has all the clients her husband had at his death.

"One man left," she says. "He wasn't too sure about having a woman for a lawyer. But three years later he came and asked if I'd take him back."

The mother-daughter law firm specializes in civil and corporate law.

Fireworks Ban Delay Sought

WASHINGTON (AP) — Three trade organizations representing U.S. and Chinese fireworks manufacturers said today they will seek a delay in the proposed federal ban on firecrackers now due to go into effect June 17.

The announcement was made by Fred McAlpin, Washington attorney representing the Taiwan Fireworks Manufacturers Association, Macao Fireworks Manufacturers Association and Oklahoma Pyrotechnic Association.

McAlpin said the U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission will be petitioned later this week to stay its proposed regulations for 30 days, allowing the sale of all fireworks and firecrackers through the 4th of July, and to hold a public hearing.

New Pastime Is Bottom Snapping

NEW YORK (AP) — A new phenomenon: bottom snapping . . . Is it a manufacturing process? Wall Street jargon? Or just possibly an overly affectionate playful gesture? No, it is none of the above.

According to Rand McNally's new Outdoor Recreation Guide, bottom snapping is a combination hobby and sport. A bottom snapper is an underwater diver who devotes much of his time on the bottom to taking photos — of everything from coral formations to shipwrecks.

The guide lists practical information on the best locations and facilities for a number of other off-beat, leisure-time hobbies and sports, as well. They include: spelunking (cave exploring), rockhounding (searching out samples of gemstones and minerals) and historical hiking (following trails of those, like Daniel Boone, who played important roles in American history).

New Pastime Is Bottom Snapping

NEW YORK (AP) — A new phenomenon: bottom snapping... Is it a manufacturing process? Wall Street jargon? Or just possibly an overly affectionate playful gesture? No, it is none of the above.

According to Rand McNally's new Outdoor Recreation Guide, bottom snapping is a combination hobby and sport. A bottom snapper is an underwater diver who devotes much of his time on the bottom to taking photos — of everything from coral formations to shipwrecks.

The guide lists practical information on the best locations and facilities for a number of other off-beat, leisure-time hobbies and sports, as well. They include: spelunking (cave exploring), rockhounding (searching out samples of gemstones and minerals) and historical hiking (following trails of those, like Daniel Boone, who played important roles in American history).

Harsha Reports

BY WILLIAM H. HARSHA
Representative To Congress
Sixth District Of Ohio

The second part of a two-step 11 per cent Social Security increase approved by Congress last year goes into effect this month, and beneficiaries will realize this additional amount in their July checks.

This boost is one of several Congress has approved recently to ensure that our senior citizens relying on these checks will be able to keep pace with the ever growing cost-of-living. In just the last five years, in fact, Congress has increased Social Security benefits by more than 60 per cent. In addition, future increases will be tied automatically to the cost-of-living jumps, and since we have yet to stop inflation, there are certain to be additional Social Security raises in the future.

Although this escalator clause provides a much needed measure of financial protection to recipients, it is also beginning to raise some serious questions about the future of the Social Security system. Specifically, where are we going to get the money to keep this program going without upping Social Security taxes to untenable rates? There is even some question as to whether raising taxes this way would actually help. Changes in the population indicate that more and more Americans are living beyond the age of 65 when they may qualify for benefits while the number of people in the work force paying into the system is declining as the country's birth rate steadily drops off.

A recent study released by the Social Security Administration indicates that because of this imbalance, the cost of Social Security would outstrip scheduled tax receipts by an average of almost three per cent for the next 75 years. More critical analysts of the Social Security system contend that the trust fund is already on the brink of bankruptcy. It now stands at $36.5 billion, an amount they say would only be sufficient to guarantee benefits for a little over ten and a half months.

New Garment Worker Pact In The Works

NEW YORK (AP) — The picket lines remain up, but 110,000 garment workers striking 750 factories in 30 states might be back at work Wednesday if they follow their union's leadership and ratify a new labor contract.

The general executive board of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers union voted unanimously Saturday to recommend acceptance by the rank-and-file of a tentative pact reached Saturday with the Clothing Manufacturers Association of the U.S.A. Terms of the suggested contract were not disclosed, but sources said the proposed three-year pact provided for an average $1 raise in the average $3.50 hourly wage of the strikers.

The sources also said liberalized pension benefits and a clause to off-set changes in the cost of living were included in the tentative agreement affecting the striking machine operators, makers, cutters, and button and pocket makers who produce 95 per cent of the clothing for men and boys made in the nation.

A spokesman for the union said meetings would be held throughout the nation so the ratification vote could be taken "as speedily as possible so workers can return to work Wednesday" if the pact is approved. Pending such approval, he said, the picket lines would remain manned.

In a statement also issued Sunday, the board of directors of the employers' association indicated approval of the pact, reached Saturday in Washington at the offices of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service.

One week earlier, talks here between the union and the manufacturers collapsed, and the union called its first strike in 53 years.

As picket lines went up on the first succeeding work day last Monday, employers feared that a strike of long duration might curb or completely eliminate production and shipment of the fall fashion line for men and boys.

The two sides met in Washington Thursday at the mediation service, and the tentative pact was reached after three days of new negotiations.

They also point out that a fund of more than $600 billion would be needed to guarantee present Social Security promises. Furthermore, the current payroll set up necessitates that today's taxes do not go into a trust fund, they must go directly to pay today's benefits. That charts the whole Social Security system on a collision course with disaster unless some major revisions are introduced into the funding process.

The Social Security system could also stand some revisions in other areas as well. For years, I have been trying to eliminate some of the offset provisions which but benefits because the recipient receives some other type of pension or retirement income. This has particularly affected those on veterans pensions in recent years, and it should be corrected. In addition, the earnings limitation is unrealistically low, depriving many able and willing senior citizens of hard earned benefits simply because they want to continue being productive and useful members of the work force.

Inequities also exist in the way payroll taxes are levied, hitting the poorest at least able to pay the most. It is also a fact that Social Security pays different benefits to people who have paid the same tax and, in some cases, no benefits to others who have paid thousands of dollars.

Social Security has been with us for over 40 years. Things have changed during that time and even the least gruesome statistics on its funding system provide convincing evidence that reforms are definitely needed. Although the Social Security Administration says predicted trust fund deficits will not affect the program's financing until 1980, it is not too early for Congress to begin investigating ways to correct this dangerous problem. Tax measures such as Social Security are generally incredibly complex and often highly controversial. They also take a considerable amount of time to formulate the most equitable and effective ones. Our Social Security program has served us well, but changes must be made to keep it going. Congress ought to start now before it will be too late.

Court Nixes Ohio Man's Argument

WASHINGTON (AP)—An Ohio man's argument that all defendants in criminal cases are entitled to free, court-appointed lawyers was rejected Monday by the U.S. Supreme Court. Freddie L. Wells, arrested in Berea, Ohio, on a charge of disturbing the peace, said the Supreme Court's decisions guaranteeing court-appointed counsel for indigents discriminated against other citizens, particularly the middle class.

He contended that the government and the courts cannot constitutionally set the poor apart as eligible for free counsel if all citizens are to be protected equally before the law.

Berea City Law Director H. E. Whitaker said appointing counsel for all defendants who seek it would render state and local government "insolvent within a very short time." "Treating all Americans exactly alike is not synonymous with guaranteeing constitutional rights to be enjoyed by all in a uniform application of each," Whitaker argued.

The Supreme Court rejected the case without comment.

Airports Get Improvement Funds

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Airports serving Ohio's big cities are receiving a total of $700,000 for safety and security improvements.

The State Controlling Board authorized the expenditure Monday at the request of the Department of Transportation. Equal sums of $100,000 are earmarked for airports in Cleveland, Cincinnati, Columbus, Dayton, Youngstown, Toledo, and Akron-Canton.

Officials said the improvements will include fire-crash rescue equipment, navigational aids, television monitoring systems, security fencing, runway lighting, and others. The improvements are being financed with federal revenue sharing funds.

In other business, at its bimonthly meeting, the board approved requests totaling more than $3.7 million for construction of the new police training academy in London, Ohio.

It authorized the expenditure of $8.6 million for sewage treatment facilities in Circleville at the request of the Ohio Water Development Authority. A total of $63,950 was released for a survey of fire alarm systems at 16 institutions operated by the Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation.

The board also released $12,700 for the construction of "barrier free" wheel chair ramps at the Statehouse and in the Ohio Departments Building on Front St. in downtown Columbus. That amount is part of $134,695 the legislature budgeted for similar improvements in various state buildings.

Two requests totaling more than $1.2 million were approved for the Department of Natural Resources.

These included $343,400 for the purchase of nearly 300 acres in Lucas County from the Toledo Trust Co. for the Maumee Bay State Park, and 591 acres from the same firm and other owners for $849,000 for the same park.

Harsha Reports

BY WILLIAM H. HARSHA
Representative To Congress
Sixth District Of Ohio

The second part of a two-step 11 per cent Social Security increase approved by Congress last year goes into effect this month, and beneficiaries will realize this additional amount in their July checks.

This boost is one of several Congress has approved recently to ensure that our senior citizens relying on these checks will be able to keep pace with the ever growing cost-of-living. In just the last five years, in fact, Congress has increased Social Security benefits by more than 60 per cent. In addition, future increases will be tied automatically to the cost-of-living jumps, and since we have yet to stop inflation, there are certain to be additional Social Security raises in the future.

Although this escalator clause provides a much needed measure of financial protection to recipients, it is also beginning to raise some serious questions about the future of the Social Security system. Specifically, where are we going to get the money to keep this program going without upping Social Security taxes to untenable rates? There is even some question as to whether raising taxes this way would actually help. Changes in the population indicate that more and more Americans are living beyond the age of 65 when they may qualify for benefits while the number of people in the work force paying into the system is declining as the country's birth rate steadily drops off.

A recent study released by the Social Security Administration indicates that because of this imbalance, the cost of Social Security would outstrip scheduled tax receipts by an average of almost three per cent for the next 75 years. More critical analysts of the Social Security system contend that the trust fund is already on the brink of bankruptcy. It now stands at $36.5 billion, an amount they say would only be sufficient to guarantee benefits for a little over ten and a half months.

New Garment Worker Pact In The Works

NEW YORK (AP) — The picket lines remain up, but 110,000 garment workers striking 750 factories in 30 states might be back at work Wednesday if they follow their union's leadership and ratify a new labor contract.

The general executive board of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers union voted unanimously Saturday to recommend acceptance by the rank-and-file of a tentative pact reached Saturday with the Clothing Manufacturers Association of the U.S.A. Terms of the suggested contract were not disclosed, but sources said the proposed three-year pact provided for an average $1 raise in the average $3.50 hourly wage of the strikers.

The sources also said liberalized pension benefits and a clause to off-set changes in the cost of living were included in the tentative agreement affecting the striking machine operators, makers, cutters, and button and pocket makers who produce 95 per cent of the clothing for men and boys made in the nation.

A spokesman for the union said meetings would be held throughout the nation so the ratification vote could be taken "as speedily as possible so workers can return to work Wednesday" if the pact is approved. Pending such approval, he said, the picket lines would remain manned.

In a statement also issued Sunday, the board of directors of the employers' association indicated approval of the pact, reached Saturday in Washington at the offices of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service.

One week earlier, talks here between the union and the manufacturers collapsed, and the union called its first strike in 53 years.

As picket lines went up on the first succeeding work day last Monday, employers feared that a strike of long duration might curb or completely eliminate production and shipment of the fall fashion line for men and boys.

The two sides met in Washington Thursday at the mediation service, and the tentative pact was reached after three days of new negotiations.

Court Nixes Ohio Man's Argument

WASHINGTON (AP)—An Ohio man's argument that all defendants in criminal cases are entitled to free, court-appointed lawyers was rejected Monday by the U.S. Supreme Court. Freddie L. Wells, arrested in Berea, Ohio, on a charge of disturbing the peace, said the Supreme Court's decisions guaranteeing court-appointed counsel for indigents discriminated against other citizens, particularly the middle class.

He contended that the government and the courts cannot constitutionally set the poor apart as eligible for free counsel if all citizens are to be protected equally before the law.

Berea City Law Director H. E. Whitaker said appointing counsel for all defendants who seek it would render state and local government "insolvent within a very short time." "Treating all Americans exactly alike is not synonymous with guaranteeing constitutional rights to be enjoyed by all in a uniform application of each," Whitaker argued.

The Supreme Court rejected the case without comment.

Airports Get Improvement Funds

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Airports serving Ohio's big cities are receiving a total of $700,000 for safety and security improvements.

The State Controlling Board authorized the expenditure Monday at the request of the Department of Transportation. Equal sums of $100,000 are earmarked for airports in Cleveland, Cincinnati, Columbus, Dayton, Youngstown, Toledo, and Akron-Canton.

Officials said the improvements will include fire-crash rescue equipment, navigational aids, television monitoring systems, security fencing, runway lighting, and others. The improvements are being financed with federal revenue sharing funds.

In other business, at its bimonthly meeting, the board approved requests totaling more than $3.7 million for construction of the new police training academy in London, Ohio.

It authorized the expenditure of $8.6 million for sewage treatment facilities in Circleville at the request of the Ohio Water Development Authority. A total of $63,950 was released for a survey of fire alarm systems at 16 institutions operated by the Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation.

The board also released $12,700 for the construction of "barrier free" wheel chair ramps at the Statehouse and in the Ohio Departments Building on Front St. in downtown Columbus. That amount is part of $134,695 the legislature budgeted for similar improvements in various state buildings.

Two requests totaling more than $1.2 million were approved for the Department of Natural Resources.

These included $343,400 for the purchase of nearly 300 acres in Lucas County from the Toledo Trust Co. for the Maumee Bay State Park, and 591 acres from the same firm and other owners for $849,000 for the same park. In other action, the board approved: —$100,000 for the judiciary branch as the state's share of retired judges' salaries for the fiscal year beginning July 1.

—$392,958 for the adjutant general for construction of an Army maintenance shop on Tracy Road in Wood County. Federal cost of the project was listed at $902,694.

—$148,080 for the Youth Commission to enter into personal service contracts with 12 physicians serving eight institutions under the commission's jurisdiction.

—$311,802 for the Rehabilitation Services Commission to enter into agreements with 22 physicians for personal services during the fiscal year starting July 1.

—$25,000 for the Department of Natural Resources to purchase 11.6 acres of land in Summit County for the Cuyahoga Valley State Park.
—$20,540 for the Department of Natural Resources for marina facilities at Springfield Lake in Summit County.
—$50,316 for the Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation for improvements at Tiffin State Hospital.

Two TV Teachers Named Outstanding Educators

EVERETT W. MEHRLEY

Everett W. Mehrley and Lawrence Fullen, teachers in the Teays Valley Junior High School, have been chosen Outstanding Secondary Educators of America for 1974. They were nominated earlier this year by the junior high principal, Robert L. Jenkins and were selected for this honor on the basis of their professional and civic achievements.

During the school year, Mehrley lives at Route 2, Ashville but spends his summer in Fly, Ohio. He has been with the Teays Valley District for 24 of his 26½ years teaching experience. He is a graduate of Capital University from where he holds a bachelor of science in music degree.

Mehrley is a member of the Christ Evangelical Church in Columbus and has been a member of the senior choir of that church for over a quarter of a century. He is a member of the national Education Association, the Ohio Education Association, the Central Ohio Teacher's Association, the Teays Valley Classroom Teachers Association and the National Council of Teachers of English. For the past 14 years, he has served as either the pianist or organist for the senior baccalaureate and commencement services at Teays Valley.

Fullen, known to many of his friends and former students as "Pop", lives at 280 Station St., in Ashville with his wife, Mildred. They have one son, Larry, of Akron. Fullen has been a teacher for 40 years and has spent 36 of those years in what is now known as the Teays Valley District. He is well-known throughout the county as a junior high coach.

He is a member of the Village Methodist Church in Ashville, the Lockbourne Masons, Scottish Rites in Columbus and Knights of Pythias in Ashville. He, too, is a member of the Ohio Education Association, the Pickaway County Teachers Association and the Teays Valley Classroom Teachers Association.

Outstanding Secondary Educators of America is an annual awards program honoring distinguished men and women for their exceptional services, achievements and leadership in the field of secondary education. Each year, the biographies of those honored are featured in the awards volume, "Outstanding Secondary Educators Of America."

These are now eligible to receive the Outstanding Secondary Educator of the Year award trophy. Five $500.00 unrestricted grants will be awarded to the schools represented by America's five Outstanding Secondary Educators. Distinguished judges, along with the Board of Advisors, will select the five individual secondary teachers to be honored. In this way, the program thanks the teacher and the school for their contributions to the continuing excellence of American education.

In announcing the award winners to the administrators, Dr. V. Gilbert Beers, Director of the Outstanding Secondary Educators of America program stated:

"The men and women chosen for this high honor have explored new paths, developed new insights and effectively communicated their knowledge to their students and colleagues. They are exceptional teachers."

Guidelines for selection include an educator's talents in the classroom, contributions to research, administrative abilities, civic service, and professional recognition.

Release Funds For Highway

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — The federal government has released $4.5 million for construction in Indiana of the second phase of Interstate 275 near Lawrenceburg.

U.S. Rep. Donald Clandy, R-Ohio, made the announcement Sunday. Work is expected to begin this summer on the 3.5-mile segment of highway between a proposed U.S. 50 interchange in Lawrenceburg and the Ohio-Indiana state line.

Construction is underway on the first phase of the estimated $27 million project between the Ohio River Bridge and U.S. 50.

Ohioan Sought In Brutal Murder

MIAMI (AP)—Dade County sheriff's deputies said Monday they had issued a nationwide alert for an ex-convict who killed a lonely old man who took him and tried to give him a fresh start in life.

Neighbors said George Kistler, 65, was a nice old man who had been lonely since his wife died of cancer in 1966.

They added it was typical of Kistler to take in the ex-convict, Thomas W. Reau, 20, of Shelby, Ohio.

Deputies said the neighbors began to get a bit uneasy when they saw the ex-convict leave in Kistler's car May 24 and Kistler wasn't seen around his apartment building after that.

But it wasn't until June 2 that deputies were called to Kistler's apartment by neighbors who reported a foul smell in the building.

The deputies said they found Kistler, 65, lying in his kitchen. He had been beaten to death.

It has been hot in Miami this spring, and deputies said the air conditioning system in the building had worked so hard that it took a long time for the body to decompose to the point where the neighbors noticed it.

"We've started a nationwide search for Reau, and we are preparing the paperwork for the FBI to issue an unlawful flight warrant," a sheriff's department spokesman said Monday. "We really want to find this one."

Deputies said Reau was taken in by Kistler early in May.

"Mr. Kistler's car was found abandoned in Beaver Falls, Pa," the spokesman said. "We're concentrating our search in Ohio and other Midwestern areas where Reau worked as a laborer."

Deputies said Reau was released a few months ago from the Florida State Penitentiary, where he served 18 months for possession and sale of marijuana.

He also had a history of arrests on charges of grand larceny, burglary and resisting arrest with violence, officers said.

Sunny Skies Cover Most Of Nation

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Thunderstorms that plagued a broad stretch of the midcontinent most of last week, much weaker now, rumbled eastward toward the Atlantic Coast today.

Free of the conditions which spawned last week's tornadoes and heavy rains, the region from the central Gulf Coast and Mississippi Valley west to the Pacific was under fair skies. Scattered thundershowers marred that sunny outlook, however, in parts of the central Plains.

Rain also splashed into sections of Lower Michigan, northern New England and the Atlantic Coast.

Sunny skies brought record temperatures in some parts of the nation Monday.

The mercury soared to 95 in New York City, a June 10 record there. Utilities from Massachusetts to Virginia were forced to cut back on electrical power by five per cent when they could not keep up with demand.

In the desert Southwest, it was 107 at Palm Springs, Calif., 106 at Phoenix, Ariz., and a sizzling 111 at Gila Bend, Ariz.

Temperatures before dawn ranged from 38 at Marquette County Airport in Michigan to 91 at Blythe, Calif.

Natural Gas Rule Invalidated

WASHINGTON (AP) — A controversial Federal Power Commission exempting small producers of natural gas from direct regulation was invalidated on technical grounds today by the Supreme Court.

The court disagreed, however, with a ruling of the U.S. Circuit Court in New Orleans that the commission lacked the power to adopt such a method of regulation for the small producers.

By an 8 to 0 vote, the Supreme Court held that the commission's order in the case had been ambiguous and sent the matter back to the commission for further proceedings.

Remark By Hays Ignites Brazilians

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil (AP) — Rep. Wayne L. Hays, D-Ohio, has come under sustained fire from Brazilian newspapers and officials for questioning the worth of the Brazilian expeditionary force in World War II.

Hays asserted at House Foreign Relations committee hearings on military aid to Latin America that Brazilian troops never got within 500 miles of the front.

The congressman's statement was published here Friday, and since then angry retorts from veterans have made daily headlines.

Sen. Paulo Torres termed Hays' statement "ridiculous."

An army ministry spokesman said the congressman's "ridiculous remarks do not deserve a reply."

The National Council of Former Combatants of Brazil said it would make no formal protest to U.S. authorities.

"Happily, what that congressman said does not represent the thinking of the American people," said retired Gen. Plinio Pitaluga, president of the Council. "The U.S. secretary of defense knows our history, and that is what is important."

At the same House hearings, Defense Secretary James Schlesinger termed Brazil one of America's most faithful allies in the Italian campaign.

Roberto Botelho da Costa, a veteran who writes for the Sao Paulo newspaper Diario Popular, called Hays a "lightweight American congressman" and commented: "As that American understands it, the nearly 30,000 Brazilian men sent to the Italian theater of operations went there to be tourists, tourists around destruction and ashes. A beautiful tourism, without doubt, if it weren't for the 500 dead, the nearly 2,000 wounded and maimed, and so many dozen missing."

Rubens Leye de Andrade, who lost a leg with the expeditionary force, told the newspaper O Globo: "I feel like showing my mechanical leg to the American legislator. I guess it was necessary for me to lose my leg for a politician to say things like that today."

Forces that are increasing the isolation of management persons from what is really happening may be among the greatest threats to survival of our economic and social system, says Philip Lesly in "The People Factor: Managing the Human Climate." Isolated executives, trained to be tough minded, tend to become less and less able to communicate with those unlike themselves.

Less Gasoline For Ohioans

WASHINGTON (AP)—Ohio is one of six states getting less gasoline in June than in May, on the basis of average daily supplies, the Federal Energy Office said Monday.

The FEO said it allocated Ohio 14.17 million gallons of gasoline per day this month, a decline of 7.6 per cent from May. The allocation amounts to 94.9 per cent of supplies in June, 1972.

The other states with smaller average daily supplies are Hawaii, Indiana, Massachusetts, New Jersey and New York.

For Ohio, the daily supply for June puts it just above the national average of 94.8 per cent of 1972 levels. The nationwide gasoline supply for June is 4.3 per cent higher than for May.

Albino Toad Discovered

WARREN, Mich. (AP) — Research scientists at the University of Michigan Amphibian Facility are excited by a backyard find—Charlie the albino toad.

Charlie, who has transparent skin, was found last week by 4-year-old Joey Strain in a backyard near his home.

The Amphibian Facility wants to study the rare animal and breed it for research.

Albino toads or frogs are "a one in a million" occurrence, said a facility scientist.

Dr. George W. Nace, a zoology professor, says the transparent skin on albino frogs and toads makes it possible to observe their bodily functions.

"Frogs have many features like those of man," he said. "We study them to try to learn how the genes control the development process."

At first Joey was reluctant to part with his pet, his mother said. But now he approves.

William Koza, Joey's stepfather, says he'll probably drive Joey and Charlie the toad to the facility at Ann Arbor next week.

But it wasn't until June 2 that deputies were called to Kistler's apartment by neighbors who reported a foul smell in the building.

The deputies said they found Kistler, 65, lying in his kitchen. He had been beaten to death.

It has been hot in Miami this spring, and deputies said the air conditioning system in the building had worked so hard that it took a long time for the body to decompose to the point where the neighbors noticed it.

"We've started a nationwide search for Reau, and we are preparing the paperwork for the FBI to issue an unlawful flight warrant," a sheriff's department spokesman said Monday. "We really want to find this one."

Deputies said Reau was taken in by Kistler early in May.

"Mr. Kistler's car was found abandoned in Beaver Falls, Pa," the spokesman said. "We're concentrating our search in Ohio and other Midwestern areas where Reau worked as a laborer."

Deputies said Reau was released a few months ago from the Florida State Penitentiary, where he served 18 months for possession and sale of marijuana.

He also had a history of arrests on charges of grand larceny, burglary and resisting arrest with violence, officers said.

Sunny Skies Cover Most Of Nation

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Thunderstorms that plagued a broad stretch of the midcontinent most of last week, much weaker now, rumbled eastward toward the Atlantic Coast today.

Free of the conditions which spawned last week's tornadoes and heavy rains, the region from the central Gulf Coast and Mississippi Valley west to the Pacific was under fair skies. Scattered thundershowers marred that sunny outlook, however, in parts of the central Plains.

Rain also splashed into sections of Lower Michigan, northern New England and the Atlantic Coast.

Sunny skies brought record temperatures in some parts of the nation Monday.

The mercury soared to 95 in New York City, a June 10 record there. Utilities from Massachusetts to Virginia were forced to cut back on electrical power by five per cent when they could not keep up with demand.

In the desert Southwest, it was 107 at Palm Springs, Calif., 106 at Phoenix, Ariz., and a sizzling 111 at Gila Bend, Ariz.

Temperatures before dawn ranged from 38 at Marquette County Airport in Michigan to 91 at Blythe, Calif.

Natural Gas Rule Invalidated

WASHINGTON (AP) — A controversial Federal Power Commission exempting small producers of natural gas from direct regulation was invalidated on technical grounds today by the Supreme Court.

The court disagreed, however, with a ruling of the U.S. Circuit Court in New Orleans that the commission lacked the power to adopt such a method of regulation for the small producers.

By an 8 to 0 vote, the Supreme Court held that the commission's order in the case had been ambiguous and sent the matter back to the commission for further proceedings.

Remark By Hays Ignites Brazilians

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil (AP) — Rep. Wayne L. Hays, D-Ohio, has come under sustained fire from Brazilian newspapers and officials for questioning the worth of the Brazilian expeditionary force in World War II. Hays asserted at House Foreign Relations committee hearings on military aid to Latin America that Brazilian troops never got within 500 miles of the front.

The congressman's statement was published here Friday, and since then angry retorts from veterans have made daily headlines.

Sen. Paulo Torres termed Hays' statement "ridiculous." An army ministry spokesman said the congressman's "ridiculous remarks do not deserve a reply."

The National Council of Former Combatants of Brazil said it would make no formal protest to U.S. authorities.

"Happily, what that congressman said does not represent the thinking of the American people," said retired Gen. Plinio Pitaluga, president of the Council. "The U.S. secretary of defense knows our history, and that is what is important."

At the same House hearings, Defense Secretary James Schlesinger termed Brazil one of America's most faithful allies in the Italian campaign.

Roberto Botelho da Costa, a veteran who writes for the Sao Paulo newspaper Diario Popular, called Hays a "lightweight American congressman" and commented: "As that American understands it, the nearly 30,000 Brazilian men sent to the Italian theater of operations went there to be tourists, tourists around destruction and ashes. A beautiful tourism, without doubt, if it weren't for the 500 dead, the nearly 2,000 wounded and maimed, and so many dozen missing."

Rubens Leye de Andrade, who lost a leg with the expeditionary force, told the newspaper O Globo: "I feel like showing my mechanical leg to the American legislator. I guess it was necessary for me to lose my leg for a politician to say things like that today."

Forces that are increasing the isolation of management persons from what is really happening may be among the greatest threats to survival of our economic and social system, says Philip Lesly in "The People Factor: Managing the Human Climate." Isolated executives, trained to be tough minded, tend to become less and less able to communicate with those unlike themselves.

Less Gasoline For Ohioans

WASHINGTON (AP)—Ohio is one of six states getting less gasoline in June than in May, on the basis of average daily supplies, the Federal Energy Office said Monday.

The FEO said it allocated Ohio 14.17 million gallons of gasoline per day this month, a decline of 7.6 per cent from May. The allocation amounts to 94.9 per cent of supplies in June, 1972.

The other states with smaller average daily supplies are Hawaii, Indiana, Massachusetts, New Jersey and New York.

For Ohio, the daily supply for June puts it just above the national average of 94.8 per cent of 1972 levels. The nationwide gasoline supply for June is 4.3 per cent higher than for May.

Albino Toad Discovered

WARREN, Mich. (AP) — Research scientists at the University of Michigan Amphibian Facility are excited by a backyard find—Charlie the albino toad.

Charlie, who has transparent skin, was found last week by 4-year-old Joey Strain in a backyard near his home.

The Amphibian Facility wants to study the rare animal and breed it for research.

Albino toads or frogs are "a one in a million" occurrence, said a facility scientist.

Dr. George W. Nace, a zoology professor, says the transparent skin on albino frogs and toads makes it possible to observe their bodily functions.

"Frogs have many features like those of man," he said. "We study them to try to learn how the genes control the development process."

At first Joey was reluctant to part with his pet, his mother said. But now he approves.

William Koza, Joey's stepfather, says he'll probably drive Joey and Charlie the toad to the facility at Ann Arbor next week.

Perry, Wood To Tangle On Mound

Gaylord Perry pitches for the Indians in the second game Wednesday night, facing Wilbur Wood of the White Sox.

bat too. He drilled a liner that got past a diving Cesar Geronimo for a triple, scoring a run. Earlier he scored after a walk, a sacrifice bunt by Ron Hunt, a single by Tim Foli and Willie Davis' line drive that Geronimo mishandled.

Geronimo, off to his best big league start, produced the Reds' lone run with a fifth inning homer. The hit kept his batting average above .300.

Jack Billingham, making his first start since May 31, drew the loss. He is now 6-4. The rangy righthander missed his last start due to a stiff shoulder.

The Expos struck for a pair of runs in the third inning, one a solo homer by catcher Barry Foote. Renko walked and came around to make it 2-0.

Bob Bailey opened the seventh with an opposite-field double and scored the third run on Renko's triple—the first of his career.

Johnny Bench and Tony Perez continued their torrid hitting streaks. The two, along with Dave Concepcion, had a pair of hits each.

The two clubs continue the series tonight with Cincinnati pitcher Roger Nelson, 3-4, facing Ohio native Dennis Blair, 1-1.

One of these days someone is really going to hit the roof at the Houston Astrodome. Mike Schmidt did Monday night ... in a matter of speaking.

The Philadelphia Phillies' infielder hit a ball in the first inning that appeared headed for home run territory in center field before it bounced off a speaker hanging from the roof of the chic glass house.

The ball fell back on the field and Schmidt got only a distinguished single out of it. Was he mad—even though the Phillies won the game, 12-0.

"If I'm one short of winning the National League home run title, I'll think back to this one that I didn't get," said Schmidt. "There's no doubt in my mind that it would have been a home run except for that speaker."

Houston centerfielder Cesar Cedeno thought so, too: "That ball might have hit the flag above the electronic scoreboard in centerfield if it hadn't hit the speaker."

As it was, the base hit was beneficial to the Philadelphia cause. It loaded the bases and set the stage for Bill Robinson's two-run double. A sacrifice fly by Mike Anderson staked Jim Lonborg to an early, three-run lead. It was all downhill after that.

Cardinals 4, Dodgers 2
Joe Torre led off the 11th inning with a home run into the left field pavilion at Dodger Stadium, helping St. Louis beat Los Angeles.

After Torre's blast off reliever Charlie Hough, 6-2, the Cardinals eventually added an insurance run on Jack Heide-mann's single. Cardinal reliever Orlando Pena, 4-0, was the winner.

Padres 9, Pirates 8
Horace Clarke delivered a run-scoring single with two out in the ninth inning, capping a wild five-run rally that lifted San Diego over Pittsburgh.

Pittsburgh built an 8-0 lead through 7½ innings, but starter Jim Rooker and a string of four relief pitchers could not stave off the Padres, who only run.

Victim of Buskirk's blanking was Jeff Hardin, who allowed only four Washington hits in the loosing effort. He fanned 11 batters and walked four.

Stoutsville 24, Laurelville 2
Kevin Sowers and Dave Gerhardt fired a two-hitter in the lopsided win. They walked 11 batters and struck out seven.

Marcus Hartley tagged four singles and a double for the winners, Denny Compton tagged a single and a homer, Jeff Adams had two singles, a double and a triple, and Sowers added two singles.

Perry, Wood To Tangle On Mound

CHICAGO (AP)—The two winningest pitchers in the majors will meet during the two-game series between the Cleveland Indians and the Chicago White Sox opening here tonight.

Gaylord Perry pitches for the Indians in the second game Wednesday night, facing Wilbur Wood of the White Sox.

Both have won 10 games, although Perry has lost only one, while Wood has been charged with six defeats.

Jim Perry opens the series tonight as the Indians meet the White Sox for the first time this season.

The White Sox, who are trying to keep their momentum going, send Stan Bahnsen to the mound.

The Sox have won four of their last six games and now have a 26-25 record in the American League West.

The Indians, who are at the .500 mark with 27 victories and 27 defeats in the American League East, hope the same thing doesn't happen that happened last year when they came into Chicago on Memorial Day weekend with two straight victories under their belts and started a downhill slide.

The Tribe won the opener, then lost two straight to Chicago and went on to lose 12 of 13 games.

Miller Says Era Of Nicklaus Over

MAMARONECK, N.Y. (AP) — The Jack Nicklaus era is over, says Johnny Miller.

That doesn't mean that the slender young blond is ready to claim pro golf's throne for his own—even though his credentials are all in order.

Not at all.
"I just think that the time is past when any one man will dominate the game," Miller said. "There are too many good players for that to happen now."

"I'm not knocking Jack," Miller emphasized. "Not at all. He's still my idol—sort of. He's probably the best player in the world. But I don't think you're going to see Jack winning 50 per cent of his starts any more."

"There are just too many good young players now," he said, and ticked off the list of the men who have become known as the game's Young Lions: "Hubert Green, Jerry Heard, John Mahaffey—he's a great player, Mahaffey is, and I guess Hubie (Green) has been the outstanding player on the tour in the last two months—Ben Crenshaw, Tom Watson, Forrest Fezler, Lanny Wadkins, even though Lanny has had his troubles this year, he's a really good player. He's a real competitor. He wants to beat your brains out for 10 cents."

Miller added: "And there's (Tom)

Weiskopf, too. In just the last year he's become a great player.

"I disagree with Tom, though. He said he thinks the golf courses are being set up too easy and that's why we're getting all these real low scores...."

"I think we're getting all these real low scores because there are just so many good players out here now. Boy, you make one mistake and a whole bunch of guys just go flying right by you, just whoosh. It happens all the time...."

Miller and Green, of course, have been the dominant figures on the tour this year. Miller has won five tournaments and $203,000. Green has won three events and $156,000. They rank one-two in both categories going into the U.S. Open championship, the most prestigious of all the world's titles.

Nicklaus, winner of but one title this season but still the game's most feared competitor, said of the emergence of the game's young players: "I'm glad to see it. I was glad to see Tom (Weiskopf) come along like he did last year. "I was glad when Lee (Trevino) came along. I'm glad to see Johnny and Lanny and Hubert and the other young players developing."

"They provide competition." Which, Nicklaus says, is "what this game is all about. It's competition."

Perry, Wood To Tangle On Mound

CHICAGO (AP)—The two winningest pitchers in the majors will meet during the two-game series between the Cleveland Indians and the Chicago White Sox opening here tonight.

Gaylord Perry pitches for the Indians in the second game Wednesday night, facing Wilbur Wood of the White Sox.

Both have won 10 games, although Perry has lost only one, while Wood has been charged with six defeats.

Jim Perry opens the series tonight as the Indians meet the White Sox for the first time this season.

The White Sox, who are trying to keep their momentum going, send Stan Bahnsen to the mound. The Sox have won four of their last six games and now have a 26-25 record in the American League West.

The Indians, who are at the .500 mark with 27 victories and 27 defeats in the American League East, hope the same thing doesn't happen that happened last year when they came into Chicago on Memorial Day weekend with two straight victories under their belts and started a downhill slide.

The Tribe won the opener, then lost two straight to Chicago and went on to lose 12 of 13 games.

The Indians have been limping along this month as a result of a series of injuries to Buddy Bell, John Ellis, John Lowenstein and Jack Brohamer.

The second Ladies PGA qualifying school for 1974 has been scheduled for July 1-3 at Dublin, Ohio. Eleven new players won cards at the January school held in Miami.

Miller Says Era Of Nicklaus Over

MAMARONECK, N.Y. (AP) — The Jack Nicklaus era is over, says Johnny Miller.

That doesn't mean that the slender young blond is ready to claim pro golf's throne for his own—even though his credentials are all in order.

Not at all.

"I just think that the time is past when any one man will dominate the game," Miller said. "There are too many good players for that to happen now."

"I'm not knocking Jack," Miller emphasized. "Not at all. He's still my idol—sort of. He's probably the best player in the world. But I don't think you're going to see Jack winning 50 per cent of his starts any more."

"There are just too many good young players now," he said, and ticked off the list of the men who have become known as the game's Young Lions:

"Hubert Green, Jerry Heard, John Mahaffey—he's a great player, Mahaffey is, and I guess Hubie (Green) has been the outstanding player on the tour in the last two months—Ben Crenshaw, Tom Watson, Forrest Fezler, Lanny Wadkins, even though Lanny has had his troubles this year, he's a really good player. He's a real competitor. He wants to beat your brains out for 10 cents."

Miller added: "And there's (Tom)

Weiskopf, too. In just the last year he's become a great player.

"I disagree with Tom, though. He said he thinks the golf courses are being set up too easy and that's why we're getting all these real low scores...."

"I think we're getting all these real low scores because there are just so many good players out here now. Boy, you make one mistake and a whole bunch of guys just go flying right by you, just whoosh. It happens all the time...."

Miller and Green, of course, have been the dominant figures on the tour this year. Miller has won five tournaments and $203,000. Green has won three events and $156,000. They rank one-two in both categories going into the U.S. Open championship, the most prestigious of all the world's titles.

Nicklaus, winner of but one title this season but still the game's most feared competitor, said of the emergence of the game's young players: "I'm glad to see it. I was glad to see Tom (Weiskopf) come along like he did last year. "I was glad when Lee (Trevino) came along. I'm glad to see Johnny and Lanny and Hubert and the other young players developing."

"They provide competition." Which, Nicklaus says, is "what this game is all about. It's competition."

Rangers Turn Back Tigers

By ALEX SACHARE
AP Sports Writer

Billy Martin learned Monday night that yes, you can go home again.

Martin, a crowd pleaser in Detroit during his three years as manager of the Tigers, made his first appearance in Detroit as skipper of the Texas Rangers Monday night and walked away with a 6-3 victory.

He received an ovation from the Tiger Stadium crowd of 22,696 when he took the lineup card to home plate before the game, and also was cheered loudly when he argued a pickoff call in the third inning. But in the eighth, when he went out to the mound to make a pitching change, there were a few boos mixed in with the cheers.

Martin said he was very pleased by the reaction he received from the Tiger fans:

"I don't know how other managers would feel but when you come back to the town you managed in and they cheer you like that, it really made me feel good."

Elsewhere in the American League, the Boston Red Sox beat the Oakland A's 4-1, the New York Yankees trimmed the California Angels 7-5 and the Minnesota Twins routed the Baltimore Orioles 9-1.

After leading the Tigers to the American League East pennant in 1972, the mercurial Martin was fired by Detroit general manager Jim Campbell last September. Shortly after he signed a five-year contract to manage the Rangers, a young team which he has spurred into second place in the AL West, just two games behind Oakland.

Red Sox 4, A's 1

Dwight Evans' three-run homer and Luis Tiant's standout pitching carried the Red Sox past the A's in a battle of division leaders.

Evans lofted a fastball from Vida Blue down the right field line in the fifth inning and it just curled inside the foul pole for the homer, capping the decisive four-run inning.

Yankees 7, Angels 5

Lou Piniella drove in the winning run

with an eighth inning double and then scored an insurance tally in the Yankees' triumph over California.

Twins 9, Orioles 1

The Minnesota Twins erupted for five runs in the seventh inning and coasted to victory over the Orioles. Tony Oliva laced a two-run single and Bobby Darwin smacked a two-run triple in the inning.

Minnesota starting pitcher Ray Corbin was removed from the game in the first inning after being struck on the pitching hand by a line drive. X rays revealed a bruise at the base of the right thumb.

Memphis Defeats Toledo Mud Hens

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—Memphis scored a run in the ninth inning without the aid of a hit to edge the Toledo Mud Hens, 6-5, in an International League contest before a Shrine Night crowd of 5,040 Monday night.

The defeat ended Toledo's five-game winning streak, its longest since August, 1972.

Danny Monzon led off the ninth inning with a walk against loser Darrell Brandon, 3-3, and then stole second. Monzon moved to third as Juan Navarrete grounded out for the first out of the innings.

Cincinnati Swords May Move Elsewhere

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP)—An official of the Buffalo Sabres of the National Hockey League confirmed a report Monday that the club's minor league club, the Cincinnati Swords, may be moved elsewhere.

"At the present moment, we are still in Cincinnati and still in the American Hockey League. But something might change that a little later," said Sabres' Assistant General Manager Freddie Hunt.

Jack Nicklaus has won the Masters golf tournament four times.

All-Star Balloting Starts

NEW YORK (AP) — Jimmy Wynn of the Los Angeles Dodgers may be leading the National League in home runs and tied for the lead in runs batted in, but in All-Star votes he's seventh among outfielders, according to figures released Monday by baseball Commissioner Bowie Kuhn's office.

Wynn, with 16 home runs and 51 RBI, has drawn 18,679 votes in the first week of fan balloting for the classic—nearly 64,000 fewer than the present leader, Hank Aaron of the Atlanta Braves.

Aaron, 40, who became the all-time home run king early in the season by hitting his 715th, got 82,121 votes to lead the league. Aaron, a member of every All-Star team since 1955, was followed by Reggie Smith of the St. Louis Cardinals with 57,756 and the Cardinals' Lou Brock with 45,605.

The next three players are Cincinnati's Pete Rose, Bobby Bonds of the San Francisco Giants, and Pittsburgh's Willie Stargell. After Wynn, Houston's Cesar Cedeño is eighth in the balloting, but in another surprise, the NL's leading hitter, Atlanta's Ralph Garr, is eighth.

The Reds have leaders at three other positions, according to this week's figures. Reds catcher Johnny Bench, with 64,116 votes, leads Ted Simmons of St. Louis by nearly 27,000; Joe Morgan tops second basemen with 44,501 ballots—almost 15,000 more than Dave Cash of the Philadelphia Phillies; and in the league's closest race, Dave Concepcion has 25,535 votes for shortstop to lead Philadelphia's Larry Bowa by 3,000.

Pittsburgh's Richie Hebner heads NL third basemen, drawing 23,980 votes to 19,893 for Atlanta's Derrell Evans, and first baseman Joe Torre of St. Louis, with 46,755 leads Cincinnati's Tony Perez by nearly 20,000. Steve Garvey of the Dodgers was another suprisingly weak draw, taking third behind Perez in the first basemen balloting despite sharing the RBI lead with teammate Wynn.

The first American League figures will be announced Friday. Balloting ends July 6 and the starting teams will be announced July 16. The pitchers for the NL team will be selected by New York Mets Manager Yogi Berra.

This year's game will be played at Pittsburgh's Three Rivers Stadium on Tuesday night, July 23.

Cincinnati Reds Sign Fort Wayne Youth

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP)—An 18-year-old strikeout whiz, whose fastball is already being compared to Cincinnati Reds pitcher Don Gullett, signed a major league baseball contract with the Reds Monday.

Steve Reed of Fort Wayne, Ind., was the No. 1 draft choice of Cincinnati's in the free agent draft last week.

He averaged almost two strikeouts per inning this season en route to a sizzling 1.64 earned run average. He took his team to the Indiana sectional finals before losing in the title game.

American golfers have won the past five Canadian Open titles.

The Air Force Academy baseball captain is senior Pat Corrigan of Kokomo, Ind.

French Open Tennis Tilt

PARIS (AP) — The men's singles of the French Open Tennis tournament settle down today to the usual European flavor, with some Latin American spice.

With four quarter-final spots filled, the lineup reads: One Frenchman, one Spaniard, one West German and one Chilean. The last four quarter-finalists will be decided today.

The biggest surprise was the arrival of Francois Jauffret, a 7-6 7-5, 7-5 winner over Jan Kodes of Czechoslovakia, the 1970 and 1971 French champion who had been seeded No. 2, in a match that finished under floodlights on the red clay center court at Roland Garros Stadium.

Jauffret, the No. 1 French player who is at home at Roland Garros, was not rated in the same class as Kodes, the 1973 Wimbledon champion and Forest Hills runnerup in 1971 and 1973. But in the crunch it was Kodes who wilted in the cool night air.

In the third set, Kodes served a double fault at break point in the ninth game. In the 11th game he led 40-15, then served three double faults, including the final point.

The top half of the quarterfinal draw pits Jauffret against Hans-Jürgen Pohmann of West Germany and Manuel Orantes of Spain against Patricio Cornejo of Chile.

Orantes defeated Arthur Ashe of Miami, co-No. 3 seed 6-1, 6-2, 6-2. Pohmann eliminated Eddie Dibbs of Miami, co-No. 9 seed, 6-3, 6-3, 4-6, 6-4. Cornejo defeated Jaime Fillol of Chile, his doubles partner.

But in the eighth, when he went out to the mound to make a pitching change, there were a few boos mixed in with the cheers.
Martin said he was very pleased by the reaction he received from the Tiger fans:
"I don't know how other managers would feel but when you come back to the town you managed in and they cheer you like that, it really made me feel good."
Elsewhere in the American League, the Boston Red Sox beat the Oakland A's 4-1, the New York Yankees trimmed the California Angels 7-5 and the Minnesota Twins routed the Baltimore Orioles 9-1.
After leading the Tigers to the American League East pennant in 1972, the mercurial Martin was fired by Detroit general manager Jim Campbell last September. Shortly after he signed a five-year contract to manage the Rangers, a young team which he has spurred into second place in the AL West, just two games behind Oakland.
Red Sox 4, A's 1
Dwight Evans' three-run homer and Luis Tiant's standout pitching carried the Red Sox past the A's in a battle of division leaders.
Evans lofted a fastball from Vida Blue down the right field line in the fifth inning and it just curled inside the foul pole for the homer, capping the decisive four-run inning.
Yankees 7, Angels 5
Lou Piniella drove in the winning run

with an eighth inning double and then scored an insurance tally in the Yankees' triumph over California.
Twins 9, Orioles 1
The Minnesota Twins erupted for five runs in the seventh inning and coasted to victory over the Orioles. Tony Oliva laced a two-run single and Bobby Darwin smacked a two-run triple in the inning.
Minnesota starting pitcher Ray Corbin was removed from the game in the first inning after being struck on the pitching hand by a line drive. X rays revealed a bruise at the base of the right thumb.
Memphis Defeats Toledo Mud Hens
TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—Memphis scored a run in the ninth inning without the aid of a hit to edge the Toledo Mud Hens, 6-5, in an International League contest before a Shrine Night crowd of 5,040 Monday night.
The defeat ended Toledo's five-game winning streak, its longest since August, 1972.
Danny Monzon led off the ninth inning with a walk against loser Darrell Brandon, 3-3, and then stole second. Monzon moved to third as Juan Navarro grounded out for the first out of the innings.
Cincinnati Swords May Move Elsewhere
CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP)—An official of the Buffalo Sabres of the National Hockey League confirmed a report Monday that the club's minor league club, the Cincinnati Swords, may be moved elsewhere.
"At the present moment, we are still in Cincinnati and still in the American Hockey League. But something might change that a little later," said Sabres' Assistant General Manager Freddie Hunt.
Jack Nicklaus has won the Masters golf tournament four times.

All-Star Balloting Starts

NEW YORK (AP) — Jimmy Wynn of the Los Angeles Dodgers may be leading the National League in home runs and tied for the lead in runs batted in, but in All-Star votes he's seventh among outfielders, according to figures released Monday by baseball Commissioner Bowie Kuhn's office.
Wynn, with 16 home runs and 51 RBI, has drawn 18,679 votes in the first week of fan balloting for the classic—nearly 64,000 fewer than the present leader, Hank Aaron of the Atlanta Braves.
Aaron, 40, who became the all-time home run king early in the season by hitting his 715th, got 82,121 votes to lead the league. Aaron, a member of every All-Star team since 1955, was followed by Reggie Smith of the St. Louis Cardinals with 57,756 and the Cardinals' Lou Brock with 45,605.
The next three players are Cincinnati's Pete Rose, Bobby Bonds of the San Francisco Giants, and Pittsburgh's Willie Stargell. After Wynn, Houston's Cesar Cedeno is eighth in the balloting, but in another surprise,

the NL's leading hitter, Atlanta's Ralph Garr, is eighth.
The Reds have leaders at three other positions, according to this week's figures. Reds catcher Johnny Bench, with 64,116 votes, leads Ted Simmons of St. Louis by nearly 27,000; Joe Morgan tops second basemen with 44,501 ballots—almost 15,000 more than Dave Cash of the Philadelphia Phillies; and in the league's closest race, Dave Concepcion has 25,535 votes for shortstop to lead Philadelphia's Larry Bowa by 3,000.
Pittsburgh's Richie Hebner heads NL third basemen, drawing 23,980 votes to 19,893 for Atlanta's Derrell Evans, and first baseman Joe Torre of St. Louis, with 46,755 leads Cincinnati's Tony Perez by nearly 20,000. Steve Garvey of the Dodgers was another surprisingly weak draw, taking third behind Perez in the first basemen balloting despite sharing the RBI lead with teammate Wynn.
The first American League figures will be announced Friday. Balloting ends July 6 and the starting teams will be announced July 16. The pitchers for the NL team will be selected by New York Mets Manager Yogi Berra.
This year's game will be played at Pittsburgh's Three Rivers Stadium on Tuesday night, July 23.

Cincinnati Reds Sign Fort Wayne Youth

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP)—An 18-year-old strikeout whiz, whose fastball is already being compared to Cincinnati Reds pitcher Don Gullett, signed a major league baseball contract with the Reds Monday.
Steve Reed of Fort Wayne, Ind., was the No. 1 draft choice of Cincinnati's in the free agent draft last week.
He averaged almost two strikeouts per inning this season en route to a sizzling 1.64 earned run average. He took his team to the Indiana sectional finals before losing in the title game.
American golfers have won the past five Canadian Open titles.
The Air Force Academy baseball captain is senior Pat Corrigan of Kokomo, Ind.

French Open Tennis Tilt

PARIS (AP) — The men's singles of the French Open Tennis tournament settle down today to the usual European flavor, with some Latin American spice.
With four quarter-final spots filled, the lineup reads: One Frenchman, one Spaniard, one West German and one Chilean. The last four quarter-finalists will be decided today.
The biggest surprise was the arrival of Francois Jauffret, a 7-6 7-5, 7-5 winner over Jan Kodes of Czechoslovakia, the 1970 and 1971 French champion who had been seeded No. 2, in a match that finished under floodlights on the red clay center court at Roland Garros Stadium.
Jauffret, the No. 1 French player who is at home at Roland Garros, was not rated in the same class as Kodes, the 1973 Wimbledon champion and Forest Hills runnerup in 1971 and 1973. But in the crunch it was Kodes who wilted in the cool night air.
In the third set, Kodes served a double fault at break point in the ninth game. In the 11th game he led 40-15, then served three double faults, including the final point.
The top half of the quarterfinal draw pits Jauffret against Hans-Jurgen Pohmann of West Germany and Manuel Orantes of Spain against Patricio Cornejo of Chile.
Orantes defeated Arthur Ashe of Miami, co-No. 3 seed 6-1, 6-2, 6-2. Pohmann eliminated Eddie Dibbs of Miami, co-No. 9 seed, 6-3, 6-3, 4-6, 6-4. Cornejo defeated Jaime Fillol of Chile, his doubles partner.

Your Horoscope

By FRANCIS DRAKE

Look in the section in which your birthday comes and find what your outlook is, according to the stars.

FOR WEDNESDAY
ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 20): Keen perception will be important now. You may therewith get a brand new slant on a puzzling job situation.

TAURUS (Apr. 21 to May 21): You have a way with you when your better self is out front, which it should be now. Day requires stamina and patience for the long pull — which will bring lasting rewards.

GEMINI (May 22 to June 21): Financial matters under some restrictions. Keep a tight grip on your wallet and curb tendencies toward extravagance.

CANCER (June 22 to July 23): If you attempt to gain your ends by unconventional methods, it could cause discord. You are usually fairly conservative, but there's a tendency toward indiscretion now.

LEO (July 24 to Aug. 23): Solar influences somewhat adverse. If certain negotiations are pending, try to postpone decisions for 48 hours, when influences will be more propitious.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 to Sept. 23): Romance under something of a cloud. Be prepared for the unexpected and disconcerting. In business affairs, however, a matter of importance is decided in your favor.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 to Oct. 23): Avoid a tendency toward procrastination and concentrate on immediate objectives. Inclinations now are to daydream about the future — unrealistically.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 to Nov. 23): Some things you thought "impossible" begin to work out now, can be pushed by your know-how and dexterity. Take the proverbial bull by the horns — and ACT!

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 to Dec. 21): Much competition in store. You should revel in most of the challenges offered. A fine day for capitalizing on your organizational abilities.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20): An excellent day for considering new business arrangements—especially if they involve real estate or property improvements.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19): Fine Uranus influences. A good day for capitalizing on unusual ideas, initiating new systems, experimenting generally.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20): Some restraint in order; also some rechecking of plans. Prospects brightening in several areas, but foresight a "must."

YOU BORN TODAY: Being extraordinarily versatile, you might be called a "Jack of all trades" but, unlike "Jack," you can master any to which you set your mind and heart. You are imaginative, artistic, something of a mystic and poet, but you attain your goals in a most practical way. Even though given to restlessness and impulsiveness, you usually turn in a top performance. Properly educated, of course, you could succeed at almost any vocation you choose, as well as an avocation—which would probably be along literary or musical lines. Birthdate of: Sir Anthony Eden, Brit. statesman.

Views On Television

NEW YORK (AP) — Twenty-eight years ago, the U.S. Army, hanged a top Japanese general, Tomoyuki Yamashita, for atrocities his troops committed in the Philippines toward the end of World War II.

Tonight, ABC-TV is offering a 90-minute dramatization of the controversial military trial of Yamashita, convicted and sentenced to death on Dec. 7, 1945, the fourth anniversary of Pearl Harbor.

The program's intent is admirable, but its content is weak. It tackles a profound, complex matter with all the subtlety of a howitzer crew firing for effect and drawing only light return fire.

The show's producer, director and narrator is film maker Stanley Kramer.

In tonight's case, Kramer, armed with a script by Norman Corwin, has taken the stuff of exciting reality and turned it into portentous docu-drama that feigns life only now and then.

A major issue in the Yamashita case was whether his trial ever could have been fair when the court and its rules of law were created by the man's victorious opponent, Gen. Douglas MacArthur.

Another key question, a perennial one, was the extent of a military commander's responsibility for his troops' conduct in wartime.

The first issue is rapidly disposed of as Kramer and the script pile on point after point to argue the trial was little more than a drumhead court-martial, conducted in the battle-scarred city of Manila in an atmosphere of "grief,

anger and the heavy residue of hate."

That Yamashita's men committed atrocities and massacres against thousands of prisoners of war and civilians isn't questioned.

Whether he could have prevented them, had he known of them, is studied and covered in his largely unrebutted assertions of innocence.

He emerges as a veritable saint, yet little question is made of his claim heavy U.S. military pressure severed his lines of communication and left him a demoralized army he could barely control.

There was no evidence he knew of or ordered any atrocity, but the military tribunal that convicted him held he "failed to provide effective control of his troops as required by the circumstances."

The U.S. Supreme Court upheld the conviction, though not, as Kramer notes, without a strong dissent by Associate Justice Frank Murphy, who warned of "dangerous implications" in the decision.

Indeed, Murphy added, "the fate of some future president of the United States and his chiefs of staff and military advisors may well have been sealed by this decision."

Views On Television

NEW YORK (AP) — Twenty-eight years ago, the U.S. Army hanged a top Japanese general, Tomoyuki Yamashita, for atrocities his troops committed in the Philippines toward the end of World War II.

Tonight, ABC-TV is offering a 90-minute dramatization of the controversial military trial of Yamashita, convicted and sentenced to death on Dec. 7, 1945, the fourth anniversary of Pearl Harbor.

The program's intent is admirable, but its content is weak. It tackles a profound, complex matter with all the subtlety of a howitzer crew firing for effect and drawing only light return fire.

The show's producer, director and narrator is film maker Stanley Kramer.

In tonight's case, Kramer, armed with a script by Norman Corwin, has taken the stuff of exciting reality and turned it into portentous docu-drama that feigns life only now and then.

A major issue in the Yamashita case was whether his trial ever could have been fair when the court and its rules of law were created by the man's victorious opponent, Gen. Douglas MacArthur.

Another key question, a perennial one, was the extent of a military commander's responsibility for his troops' conduct in wartime.

The first issue is rapidly disposed of as Kramer and the script pile on point after point to argue the trial was little more than a drumhead court-martial, conducted in the battle-scarred city of Manila in an atmosphere of "grief,

anger and the heavy residue of hate."

That Yamashita's men committed atrocities and massacres against thousands of prisoners of war and civilians isn't questioned. Whether he could have prevented them, had he known of them, is studied and covered in his largely un rebutted assertions of innocence.

He emerges as a veritable saint, yet little question is made of his claim heavy U.S. military pressure severed his lines of communication and left him a demoralized army he could barely control.

There was no evidence he knew of or ordered any atrocity, but the military tribunal that convicted him held he "failed to provide effective control of his troops as required by the circumstances."

The U.S. Supreme Court upheld the conviction, though not, as Kramer notes, without a strong dissent by Associate Justice Frank Murphy, who warned of "dangerous implications" in the decision. Indeed, Murphy added, "the fate of some future president of the United States and his chiefs of staff and military advisors may well have been sealed by this decision."

Vo School Offers Child Care Program

The Pickaway-Ross Joint Vocational School will incorporate in its home economics classes a child care program and a nursery school session within its laboratory. Through this training program, 11th and 12th grade students will have an opportunity to study child development and behavior of children in the nursery school setting.

Saudi Arabia To Take Over Oil Company

NEW YORK (AP) — Saudi Arabia plans to take over majority ownership of Arabian American Oil Co., the world's largest oil producer with an estimated 8.5 million barrels a day.

Aramco's announcement on the takeover Monday said the Saudis will increase their ownership of the company from 25 to 60 per cent. No financial details were disclosed.

The move confirmed expectations that Saudi Arabia, which has the world's largest known oil reserves, would seek greater control. Some industry experts had suggested the Saudis might demand 100 per cent control.

Aramco was founded in 1933 by the Standard Oil Co. of California. In later years, its ownership was expanded to include Texaco, Inc., Exxon Corp. and Mobil.

Saudi Arabia took a 25 per cent share two years ago. This was scheduled to increase gradually to 51 per cent by 1983.

An Aramco spokesman said the four U.S. owners would meet in July with Saudi Arabian representatives to work details.

He said the oil companies would have a contractual arrangement to buy most of the oil produced from the government's share of the company's operations.

Rawleigh Warner Jr., chairman of Mobil, has said he hoped the final agreement with Saudi Arabia would be similar to the recent one in which Kuwait assumed 60 per cent ownership of oil company operations.

Aramco produces 96 per cent of Saudi Arabia's oil. Two other firms operating in the country produce a combined 260,000 barrels a day.

Appeals Court Affirms Decision

All three justices of the Fourth District Court of Appeals concurred on the affirmation of the decision made in Pickaway County Common Pleas Court on Salvatore Lee Monti.

Monti's defense counsel filed the appeal on the basis that the defendant was not represented by legal counsel at the time he entered pleas of guilty to two counts of forgery.

Presiding Judge Earl Stephenson and justices Horner Abele and Gordon Gray agreed that there was no prejudicial error on the part of the court to violate the rights of the defendant.

Honor Roll Names Omitted

Due to a new teacher at the end of the school year, the following seventh grade students were omitted from the McDowell honor roll list.

The following students attained honor roll status during the sixth six weeks: Todd Boldoser, Jeff Davis, Jackie Goode, Vic Karshner, Ray Moats.

Specialists Offer WIN Training

Louis Cook and David Kulich, administrative specialists from the State WIN staff, were in the Pickaway County Welfare Department Monday to provide the local staff with in-depth instruction and training for intensive implementation of the State-Federal Work Incentive Program.

The goal of the work Incentive Program is to provide supportive services and professional assistance followed by realistic occupational training in order to make it possible for men, women, and out-of-school youth, 16 years and older, to move into productive employment and off the Welfare rolls.

Additional information for those interested may be obtained by telephone 474-7588 or by calling at the local office 109 E. Mound St.

Residence Claims Bog Vets' Bonus

John W. Bush, director of the Ohio Vietnam Veterans Bonus Commission, expressed concern that the question of residence in each individual application is taking an excessive amount of the time allocated to examining claims, thus slowing up the overall processing of applications.

"The compensable periods of active service have been clearly defined in the application instructions and in numerous news releases," the director said.

He stated that the requirement of a year of Ohio residence immediately prior to such active service, means a year of legal residence (domicil).

"Ohio Attorneys' General have agreed that legal residence in Ohio, as used in Ohio Revised Code 339.40, is that place where a person has a fixed establishment and to which, whenever he is absent, he has an intention of returning to reside indefinitely," the director added.

In the most recent opinion, dated May 31, 1974, Attorney General William J. Brown said,

"The drafters of the constitutional amendment did not intend mere temporary residence in Ohio to qualify a person for the veterans' bonus. There must be proof of an intent to establish domicil in Ohio."

Director Bush also pointed out, especially for career servicemen, that if a veteran voted in any state other than Ohio after entering active military service, there is a strong presumption that he changed his domicil from Ohio at that time.

YMCA Offers Camping Program

"Camping is the ideal way to get close to nature," says Harold Hewitt, executive director of the Pickaway County Family YMCA, discussing the new camp offerings here this season.

"There is fun and personal growth benefits, whether from a couple of weeks of residence camping, if you're 8-16 years old, or family camping for a weekend, or a series of day camp activities for 6-to 11 year olds, or our new Mini-Tyke Camp for pre-schoolers.

"Our camping program offers a variety of special activities, horseback riding, aquatic sports, crafts, archery, and special family programs," Hewitt said.

Registrations are still being accepted locally for Camp Alfred Willson, Bellefontaine, which is available to Pickaway County boys and girls through the local YMCA Branch status with the Columbus

Metropolitan YMCA. "We can answer any questions on Willson," Hewitt said, "and handle all registrations locally."

The Pickaway County YMCA Day Camp will operate three periods: July 8 through July 12; July 15 through July 19; and July 22 through July 26. Brochures on both camps can be obtained by calling the YMCA office.

Youths in day camp, or older resident campers, have important new experiences in relating to their own age group away from the family, and to trained counselors in a safe and stimulating situation.

For Y youths, camp is not just a temporary thing. They enjoy all year long having been at the Y camp, and many return for a second year. Around the USA last year, more than a million people benefited from residence, caravan, and day and other camping, sometimes with counselors from other countries. According to the latest figures, about 30 percent of these were women and girls.

"Last year in Pickaway County more than 148 boys and girls were involved in the YMCA resident and day camping programs.

"We have exciting, new things going in camping this year," Hewitt says. "We're looking for a larger registration than last year. We urge those interested to call early, 474-8621 for information and registration so they won't be disappointed."

Deputy Investigates Larcenies

Pickaway County Sheriff's Deputy Billy Huffman investigated two reports of petit theft at two residences on the access road west of the Scioto River.

Thomas W. Diltz, 258½ Logan St., reported an estimated $78 worth of tools were taken from a pick-up truck sometime between 5 p.m. Sunday and 11:30 p.m. Monday, parked at his residence.

Paul W. Clifton, 227 Third Ave., reported thieves took a flashlight from his car, sometime between 5 p.m. Sunday and 11:30 p.m. Monday, parked at his residence.

The flashlight was estimated to be worth $51.50.
